The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand Thirteen

An Act relative to flood insurance.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Chapter 183 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2012 Official
2 Edition, is hereby amended by inserting after section 68 the following section:-

3 Section 69. No creditor, as defined in section 35B of chapter 244, shall require in a 4 mortgage, note or otherwise, a purchaser or owner of residential property to purchase or pay for 5 flood insurance on the property: (i) at a coverage amount that exceeds the outstanding mortgage 6 thereon; (ii) that includes coverage for contents; or (iii) that includes a deductible less than 7 $5,000. In each instance where a creditor requires in a mortgage, note, or otherwise, a purchaser 8 or owner of a residential property to purchase or pay for flood insurance on said property, the 9 creditor shall provide notice to the purchaser or owner of the residential property at the time the 10 purchaser or owner of the residential property is notified of the need to purchase or pay for flood 11 insurance that states the following in clear and conspicuous print: ‘Please note that the flood 12 insurance we are requiring you to purchase will only protect your creditor/lender’s interest in 13 your property. It may not be sufficient to pay for many needed repairs after a flood and may not 14 compensate you for your losses in the property due to the flood. If you wish to protect your 15 home or investment, you may wish to purchase more flood insurance than the amount we are 16 requiring you to buy.’

17 SECTION 2. This act shall be effective upon passage.
