347 than June 30, 2060.

348 (b) Bonds of the commonwealth may be issued under authority of this section in such 349 manner and on such terms and conditions as the state treasurer, with the concurrence of the 350 secretary of administration and finance, may determine in accordance with this subsection and,
351 to the extent consistent with this act, general laws relative to the issuance of bonds of the 352 commonwealth. Section 11 of chapter 152 of the acts of 1997, including without limitation the 353 Capital Reserve Fund established pursuant to said section 11 of said chapter 152, shall apply to 354 such bonds and the security therefor to the same extent as such provisions apply to bonds of the 355 commonwealth outstanding under said section 11 of said chapter 152; provided, that if so 356 determined by the state treasurer, with the concurrence of the secretary of administration and 357 finance, bonds issued under authority of this act may be issued on a parity with or subordinate to 358 such outstanding bonds, and, if subordinate, with or without the benefit of the capital reserve

359 fund. Earnings on investment of the proceeds of such bonds and on the proceeds of notes issued 360 pursuant to section 9 shall be deposited in the convention center fund and applied to the purposes
361 set forth in subsection (c) of section 10 of said chapter 152.

362 (c) As additional security for bonds of the commonwealth issued under authority of this 363 section, the convention center fund, and all amounts on deposit from time to time therein, are 364 hereby pledged to the payment of such bonds and, if so determined by the state treasurer with the 365 concurrence of the secretary of administration and finance, to the payment of bonds outstanding 366 under section 11 of chapter 152 of the acts of 1997, subject to the application of such amounts as 367 provided in subsection (c) of section 10 of said chapter 152 and the trust agreement for such 368 bonds. In order to further increase the marketability of such bonds, the commonwealth, if so 369 determined by the state treasurer with the concurrence of the secretary of administration and 370 finance, may pledge all or any portion of the receipts from the excises imposed by section 3 of 371 chapter 64G of the General Laws and section 22 of chapter 546 of the acts of 1969 upon the 372 transfer of any room that are not otherwise deposited in the convention center fund pursuant to 373 said section 10 of said chapter 152 or any other applicable law as “additional pledged receipts” to 374 further secure such bonds. Additional pledged receipts shall be included as “special receipts”, as 375 defined in subsection (b) of said section 10 of said chapter 152, as amended, only to the extent
376 and as provided in the trust agreement for such bonds, and shall be thereafter applied in each 377 fiscal year, subject to the terms of the trust agreement pursuant to which such bonds are issued,
378 first, for purposes of paying debt service on such bonds or to the maintenance of the Capital
379 Reserve Fund for such bonds established pursuant to subsection (c) of said section 11 of said 380 chapter 152 and second, as otherwise provided by law.

381 (d) Any bonds issued under this section and any notes of the commonwealth issued in 382 anticipation thereof as hereinafter provided, shall be deemed to be investment securities under 383 chapter 106 of the General Laws, shall be securities in which any public officer, fiduciary, 384 insurance company, financial institution or investment company may properly invest funds and 385 shall be securities which may be deposited with any public custodian for any purpose for which 386 the deposit of bonds is authorized by law. Any such bonds and notes, their transfer and the 387 income therefrom, including any profit made on the sale thereof, shall at all times be free from 388 taxation within the commonwealth.

389 SECTION 9. The state treasurer may borrow, from time to time, on the credit of the 390 commonwealth such sums of money as may be necessary to meet payments as authorized by 391 section 2 in anticipation of the receipt of proceeds of special obligation bonds of the 392 commonwealth issued under authority of section 8, and may issue and renew, from time to time, 393 notes of the commonwealth therefor, bearing interest payable at such time and at such rate as 394 shall be fixed by the state treasurer. Such notes shall be issued and may be renewed 1 or more 395 times for a maximum term of years, not exceeding 5 years, as the governor may recommend to 396 the general court in accordance with section 3 of Article LXII of the Amendments to the 397 Constitution; provided, however, that all such notes shall be payable not later than June 30, 2020.

398 All interest on account of the principal of such notes shall be payable from the convention center
399 fund. Notwithstanding any provision of this act to the contrary, notes and the interest thereon
400 issued under the authority of this section, shall be general obligations of the commonwealth.

401 SECTION 10. Notwithstanding clause (v) of subsection (c) of section 10 of chapter 152 402 of the acts of 1997, inserted by section 51 of chapter 122 of the acts of 2006, amounts held in the 403 convention center fund that are determined by the state treasurer and the secretary of 404 administration and finance to exceed the amount necessary to satisfy the sufficiency of such fund 405 may be applied to defray the net cost of operations of the Authority, as defined in section 32 of 406 chapter 190 of the acts of 1982, as amended, in an amount in fiscal year 2015 not exceeding 407 $24,000,000, in fiscal year 2016 not exceeding $25,000,000, in fiscal year 2017 not exceeding 408 $26,000,000 and an amount not exceeding $28,000,000 in fiscal year 2018 and in each fiscal 409 year thereafter.

410 SECTION 11. This act shall be deemed to provide an exclusive, additional, alternative 411 and complete method for anything authorized herein and shall be deemed and construed to be 412 supplemental and additional to, and not in derogation of, powers conferred upon the Authority; 413 provided, however, that if this act is inconsistent with any general or special law, administrative 414 order or regulation or any limitation imposed by a corporate or municipal charter, this act shall 415 control.

416 SECTION 12. If, at any time, additional pledged receipts, as defined in subsection (c) of 417 section 8, are applied to pay debt service on bonds issued under section 8 or, if applicable, bonds 418 outstanding under section 11 of chapter 152 of the acts of 1997 or to the maintenance of the 419 Capital Reserve Fund created under said chapter 152, the convention center's excise shall be 420 increased, in the city of Boston only, until the amount deposited into the convention center fund
421 from the increased excises shall be at least equal to the amount of additional pledged receipts so 422 applied to pay debt service or to the maintenance of the Capital Reserve Fund, as so certified by 423 the secretary of administration and finance; provided, however, that the total amount of the 424 excise imposed pursuant to sections 3 and 3A of chapter 64G of the General Laws and section 22
425 of chapter 546 of the acts of 1969 shall not exceed 14 per cent. Amounts so received from the 426 increased excises arising from the use of additional pledged receipts shall, subject to the terms of 427 the trust agreement pursuant to which such bonds are issued and to the use of such moneys
428 purposes set forth in sections 1 and 2, without further appropriation, be transferred, as of the end
429 of each fiscal year, to the General Fund.
