The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand Thirteen

An Act relative to lobster processing.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Section 44 of Chapter 130 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2010
2 Official Edition, is hereby amended by striking out the third paragraph and inserting in place
3 thereof the following paragraph:-

4 If the measurement of any such lobster taken from one or the other eye sockets is of the 5 required length, such lobster shall be deemed to be a legal lobster. The bringing ashore any 6 mutilated lobster in a manner that affects its measurement as aforesaid shall be prima facie 7 evidence in all prosecutions that the lobster was or is less than the required length; provided, the 8 director, with the approval of the marine fisheries advisory commission, shall promulgate rules
9 and regulations to allow the on-shore processing of live lobsters of legal length into a food 10 product of frozen lobster parts and the director shall further promulgate rules and regulations to 11 allow the possession and sale of such processed food product by wholesale dealers; provided 12 further, the processing of lobsters into parts at sea shall be prohibited and shall be subject to the 13 penalties provided in the first paragraph; provided further, that said processing shall be 14 conducted only by wholesale dealers that are licensed by the department of public health under 15 section 77G of chapter 94; provided further, the packaging of processed frozen lobster parts as a 16 food product shall bear a label in accordance with applicable federal and state laws and 17 regulations; provided further, frozen lobster parts that have been processed as a food product 18 may be possessed, sold or offered for sale by any wholesale dealer, and any retail dealer
19 including without limitation, restaurants and retail food establishments; and such food product 20 may be possessed by a consumer. This section shall not apply to common carriers possessing 21 lobster or lobster food products, for the purpose of transportation.
