The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand Thirteen

An Act relative to the contraction of MRSA by public safety personnel..

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Chapter 32 of the General Laws is hereby amended by inserting, after 2 section 94B, the following section:-

3 Section 94C. Notwithstanding any general or special law to the contrary affecting the 4 non-contributory or contributory system, any condition of impairment of health caused by 5 methicillin-resistant Staphylococcus aureus resulting in total or partial disability or death to a 6 uniformed member of a paid fire department or permanent member of a police department, or of 7 the police force of the Massachusetts Bay Transportation Authority, or of the state police, or of 8 the public works building police, or to any employee in the department of correction or a county 9 correctional facility whose regular or incidental duties require the care, supervision or custody of 10 prisoners, criminally insane persons or defective delinquents, or to any permanent crash
11 crewman, crash boatman, fire controlman or assistant fire controlman employed at the General
12 Edward Lawrence Logan International Airport, or members of the Massachusetts military 13 reservation fire department, or EMS first responders or emergency medical technicians, shall, if 14 such person successfully passed a physical examination on entry into such service, or 15 subsequently successfully passed a physical examination, which examination failed to reveal any 16 evidence of such condition, be presumed to have been suffered in the line of duty, unless the 17 contrary be shown by competent evidence.
