83 access device in connection with a transaction shall retain the card security code data, the PIN

84 verification code number, or the full contents of any track of magnetic stripe data, subsequent to 85 the authorization of the transaction or in the case of a PIN debit transaction, subsequent to 48

106 company by a financial institution. The remedies under this subdivision are cumulative and do 107 not restrict any other right or remedy otherwise available to the financial institution.

108 Section 7:- This chapter does not relieve a person or agency from the duty to comply with 109 requirements of any applicable general or special law or federal law regarding the protection and 110 privacy of personal information; provided however, a person who maintains procedures for 111 responding to a breach of security pursuant to federal laws, rules, regulations, guidance, or 112 guidelines, is deemed to be in compliance with this chapter if the person notifies affected
113 Massachusetts residents in accordance with the maintained or required procedures when a breach 114 occurs; provided further that the person also notifies the attorney general and the director of the 115 office of consumer affairs and business regulation of the breach as soon as practicable and

117 general and the director of the office of consumer affairs and business regulation shall consist of, 118 but not be limited to, any steps the person or agency has taken or plans to take relating to the 121 regulations, guidance or guidelines, then it shall be subject to the provisions of this chapter.

122           Section 8: The attorney general may bring an action pursuant to section 4 of chapter 93A 123 against a person or otherwise to remedy violations of this chapter and for other relief that may be 124 appropriate.
