93 (a) As used in Part 2 of the Uniform Adult Guardianship and Protective Proceedings
94 Jurisdiction Act:

95 (1) "Emergency" means a circumstance that likely will result in substantial harm 96 to a respondent's health, safety, or welfare, and for which the appointment of a guardian is 97 necessary because no other person has authority and is willing to act on the respondent's behalf;

98 (2) "Home state" means the state in which the respondent was physically present,
99 including any period of temporary absence, for at least six consecutive months immediately
100 before the filing of a petition for a protective order or the appointment of a guardian; or if none, 101 the state in which the respondent was physically present, including any period of temporary 102 absence, for at least six consecutive months ending within the six months prior to the filing of the 103 petition.

104 (3) "Significant-connection state" means a state, other than the home state, with 105 which a respondent has a significant connection other than mere physical presence and in which 106 substantial evidence concerning the respondent is available.

107 (b) In determining under Section 5A-203 and Subsection (e) of Section 5A-301 whether a 108 respondent has a significant connection with a particular state, the court shall consider:

109 (1) the location of the respondent's family and other persons required to be 110 notified of the guardianship or protective proceeding;

111 (2) the length of time the respondent at any time was physically present in the 112 state and the duration of any absence;

113 (3) the location of the respondent's property; and

114 (4) the extent to which the respondent has ties to the state such as voting 115 registration, state or local tax return filing, vehicle registration, driver's license, social 116 relationship, and receipt of services.

117 Section 5A-202. [Exclusive Basis.]

118 Part 2 of the Uniform Adult Guardianship and Protective Proceedings Jurisdiction Act
119 provides the exclusive jurisdictional basis for a court of this state to appoint a guardian or issue a 120 protective order for an adult.

121 Section 5A-203. [Jurisdiction.]

122 A court of this state has jurisdiction to appoint a guardian or issue a protective order for a 123 respondent if:

124 (1) this state is the respondent's home state;

125 (2) on the date the petition is filed, this state is a significant-connection state and:

126 (A) the respondent does not have a home state or a court of the 127 respondent's home state has declined to exercise jurisdiction because this state is a more 128 appropriate forum; or

129 (B) the respondent has a home state, a petition for an appointment or order
130 is not pending in a court of that state or another significant-connection state, and, before the court
131 makes the appointment or issues the order:

132 (i) a petition for an appointment or order is not filed in the 133 respondent's home state;

134 (ii) an objection to the court's jurisdiction is not filed by a person 135 required to be notified of the proceeding; and;

136 (iii) the court in this state concludes that it is an appropriate forum
137 under the factors set forth in Section 5A-206;

138 (3) this state does not have jurisdiction under either paragraph (1) or (2), the 139 respondent's home state and all significant-connection states have declined to exercise 140 jurisdiction because this state is the more appropriate forum, and jurisdiction in this state is 141 consistent with the constitutions of this state and the United States; or 142 (4) the requirements for special jurisdiction under Section 5A-204 are met.

143 Section 5A-204. [Special Jurisdiction.]

144 (a) A court of this state lacking jurisdiction under Section 5A-203, (1) through (3), has 145 special jurisdiction to do any of the following:

146 (1) appoint a guardian in an emergency for a respondent who is physically present
147 in this state for a term not exceeding 90 days except that upon a finding of extraordinary
148 circumstances set forth in its order, the court may order an appointment for a longer period to a
149 date certain. The court may for good cause shown extend the appointment for additional 90 day
150 periods;

151 (2) issue a protective order with respect to real or tangible personal property
152 located in this state;

153 (3) appoint a guardian or conservator for an incapacitated or protected person for 154 whom a provisional order to transfer the proceeding from another state has been issued under 155 procedures similar to Section 5A-301.

156 (b) If a petition for the appointment of a guardian in an emergency is brought in this state
157 and this state was not the respondent's home state on the date the petition was filed, the court 158 shall dismiss the proceeding at the request of the court of the home state, if any, whether 159 dismissal is requested before or after the emergency appointment.

160 Section 5A-205. [Exclusive and Continuing Jurisdiction.]

161 Except as otherwise provided in Section 5A-204, a court that has appointed a guardian or 162 issued a protective order consistent with the Uniform Adult Guardianship and Protective 163 Proceedings Jurisdiction Act has exclusive and continuing jurisdiction over the proceeding until 164 it is terminated by the court or the appointment or order expires by its own terms.

165 Section 5A-206. [Appropriate Forum.]

166 (a) A court of this state having jurisdiction under Section 5A-203 to appoint a guardian
167 or issue a protective order may decline to exercise its jurisdiction if it determines at any time that 168 a court of another state is a more appropriate forum.

169 (b) If a court of this state declines to exercise its jurisdiction under Subsection (a) of this 170 section, it shall either dismiss or stay the proceeding. The court may impose any condition the 171 court considers just and proper, including the condition that a petition for the appointment of a 172 guardian or issuance of a protective order be filed promptly in another state.

173 (c) In determining whether it is an appropriate forum, the court shall consider all relevant 174 factors, including:

175 (1) any expressed preference of the respondent;

176 (2) whether abuse, neglect, or exploitation of the respondent has occurred or is 177 likely to occur and which state could best protect the respondent from the abuse, neglect, or 178 exploitation;

179 (3) the length of time the respondent was physically present in or was a legal 180 resident of this or another state;

181 (4) the distance of the respondent from the court in each state;

182 (5) the financial circumstances of the respondent's estate;

183 (6) the nature and location of the evidence;

184 (7) the ability of the court in each state to decide the issue expeditiously and the 185 procedures necessary to present evidence;

186 (8) the familiarity of the court of each state with the facts and issues in the 187 proceeding; and

188 (9) if an appointment were made, the court's ability to monitor the conduct of the 189 guardian or conservator.

190 Section 5A-207. [Jurisdiction Declined by Reason of Conduct.]

191 (a) If at any time a court of this state determines that it acquired jurisdiction to appoint a 192 guardian or issue a protective order because of unjustifiable conduct, the court may:

193 (1) decline to exercise jurisdiction;

194 (2) exercise jurisdiction for the limited purpose of fashioning an appropriate 195 remedy to ensure the health, safety, and welfare of the respondent or the protection of the 196 respondent's property or prevent a repetition of the unjustifiable conduct, including staying the 197 proceeding until a petition for the appointment of a guardian or issuance of a protective order is 198 filed in a court of another state having jurisdiction; or

199 (3) continue to exercise jurisdiction after considering:

200 (A) the extent to which the respondent and all persons required to be 201 notified of the proceedings have acquiesced in the exercise of the court's jurisdiction;

202 (B) whether it is a more appropriate forum than the court of any other state
203 under the factors set forth in Subsection (c) of Section 5A-206; and 204 (C) whether the court of any other state would have jurisdiction under 205 factual circumstances in substantial conformity with the jurisdictional standards of Section 5A-206 203.

207 (b) If a court of this state determines that it acquired jurisdiction to appoint a guardian or 208 issue a protective order because a party seeking to invoke its jurisdiction engaged in unjustifiable
209 conduct, it may assess against that party necessary and reasonable expenses, including attorney's 210 fees, investigative fees, court costs, communication expenses, witness fees and expenses, and 211 travel expenses. The court may not assess fees, costs, or expenses of any kind against this state or 212 a governmental subdivision, agency, or instrumentality of this state unless authorized by law
213 other than the Uniform Adult Guardianship and Protective Proceedings Jurisdiction Act .

214 Section 5A-208. [Notice of Proceeding.]

215 If a petition for the appointment of a guardian or issuance of a protective order is brought 216 in this state and this state was not the respondent's home state on the date the petition was filed, 217 in addition to complying with the notice requirements of this state, notice of the petition must be 218 given to those persons who would be entitled to notice of the petition if a proceeding were 219 brought in the respondent's home state. The notice must be given in the same manner as notice is 220 required to be given in this state.

221 Section 5A-209. [Proceedings in More than One State.]

222 Except for a petition for the appointment of a guardian in an emergency or issuance of a
223 protective order limited to property located in this state under Paragraph (1) or (2) of Subsection
224 (a) of Section 5A-204, if a petition for the appointment of a guardian or issuance of a protective 225 order is filed in this state and in another state and neither petition has been dismissed or 226 withdrawn, the following rules apply:

227 (1) If the court in this state has jurisdiction under Section 5A-203, it may proceed 228 with the case unless a court in another state acquires jurisdiction under provisions similar to 229 Section 5A-203 before the appointment or issuance of the order.

230 (2) If the court in this state does not have jurisdiction under Section 5A-203, 231 whether at the time the petition is filed or at any time before the appointment or issuance of the 232 order, the court shall stay the proceeding and communicate with the court in the other state. If the 233 court in the other state has jurisdiction, the court in this state shall dismiss the petition unless the 234 court in the other state determines that the court in this state is a more appropriate forum.

235 PART 3

236 TRANSFER OF GUARDIANSHIP OR CONSERVATORSHIP

237 Section 5A-301. [Transfer of Guardianship or Conservatorship to Another State.]

238 (a) A guardian or conservator appointed in this state may petition the court to transfer the 239 guardianship or conservatorship to another state.

240 (b) Notice of a petition under Subsection (a) of this section must be given to the persons 241 that would be entitled to notice of a petition in this state for the appointment of a guardian or 242 conservator.

243 (c) On the court's own motion or on request of the guardian or conservator, the 244 incapacitated or protected person, or other person required to be notified of the petition, the court
245 shall hold a hearing on a petition filed pursuant to Subsection (a) of this section.

246 (d) The court shall issue an order provisionally granting a petition to transfer a 247 guardianship and shall direct the guardian to petition for guardianship in the other state if the 248 court is satisfied that the guardianship will be accepted by the court in the other state and the 249 court finds that:

250 (1) the incapacitated person is physically present in or is reasonably expected to 251 move permanently to the other state;

252 (2) an objection to the transfer has not been made or, if an objection has been
253 made, the objector has not established that the transfer would be contrary to the interests of the 254 incapacitated person; and

255 (3) plans for care and services for the incapacitated person in the other state are 256 reasonable and sufficient.

257 (e) The court shall issue a provisional order granting a petition to transfer a 258 conservatorship and shall direct the conservator to petition for conservatorship in the other state
259 if the court is satisfied that the conservatorship will be accepted by the court of the other state 260 and the court finds that:

261 (1) the protected person is physically present in or is reasonably expected to move 262 permanently to the other state, or the protected person has a significant connection to the other 263 state considering the factors in Subsection (b) of Section 5A-201;

264 (2) an objection to the transfer has not been made or, if an objection has been
265 made, the objector has not established that the transfer would be contrary to the interests of the 266 protected person; and

267 (3) adequate arrangements will be made for management of the protected person's 268 property.

269 (f) The court shall issue a final order confirming the transfer and terminating the 270 guardianship or conservatorship upon its receipt of:

271 (1) a provisional order accepting the proceeding from the court to which the 272 proceeding is to be transferred which is issued under provisions similar to Section 5A-302; and

273 (2) the documents required to terminate a guardianship or conservatorship in this 274 state.

275 Section 5A-302. [Accepting Guardianship or Conservatorship Transferred from Another
276 State.]

277 (a) To confirm transfer of a guardianship or conservatorship transferred to this state under 278 provisions similar to Section 5A-301, the guardian or conservator must petition the court in this 279 state to accept the guardianship or conservatorship. The petition must include a certified copy of 280 the other state's provisional order of transfer.

281 (b) Notice of a petition under Subsection (a) of this section must be given to those 282 persons that would be entitled to notice if the petition were a petition for the appointment of a
283 guardian or issuance of a protective order in both the transferring state and this state. The notice
284 must be given in the same manner as notice is required to be given in this state.

285 (c) On the court's own motion or on request of the guardian or conservator, the 286 incapacitated or protected person, or other person required to be notified of the proceeding, the 287 court shall hold a hearing on a petition filed pursuant to Subsection (a) of this section.

288 (d) The court shall issue an order provisionally granting a petition filed under Subsection 289 (a) of this section unless:

290 (1) an objection is made and the objector establishes that transfer of the 291 proceeding would be contrary to the interests of the incapacitated or protected person; or 292 (2) the guardian or conservator is ineligible for appointment in this state.

293 (e) The court shall issue a final order accepting the proceeding and appointing the 294 guardian or conservator as guardian or conservator in this state upon its receipt from the court 295 from which the proceeding is being transferred of a final order issued under provisions similar to 296 Section 5A-301 transferring the proceeding to this state.

297 (f) Not later than 90 days after issuance of a final order accepting transfer of a 298 guardianship or conservatorship, unless otherwise ordered, the court shall determine whether the 299 guardianship or conservatorship needs to be modified to conform to the law of this state.

300 (g) In granting a petition under this section, the court shall recognize a guardianship or 301 conservatorship order from the other state, including the determination of the incapacitated or 302 protected person's incapacity and the appointment of the guardian or conservator.

303 (h) The denial by a court of this state of a petition to accept a guardianship or 304 conservatorship transferred from another state does not affect the ability of the guardian or 305 conservator to seek appointment as guardian or conservator in this state under Article V, Parts 3 306 and 4.

307 PART 4

319 appointing court of an intent to register, may register the protective order in this state by filing as

325 guardian or conservator may exercise in this state all powers authorized in the order of 326 appointment except as prohibited under the laws of this state, including maintaining actions and 327 proceedings in this state and, if the guardian or conservator is not a resident of this state, subject 328 to any conditions imposed upon nonresident parties.

329 (b) A court of this state may grant any relief available under the Uniform Adult
