An Act Relative to Full Application of Telemedicine Coverage.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Chapter 32A of the General Laws is hereby amended by inserting after
2 section 17J, the following section:—

3 Section 17K. (a) For the purposes of this section, “telemedicine“ as it pertains to the
4 delivery of health care services, shall mean the use of interactive audio, video or other electronic
5 media for the purpose of diagnosis, consultation or treatment. “Telemedicine” shall not include
6 the use of audio-only telephone, facsimile machine or e-mail.

7 (b) An insurer may limit coverage of telemedicine services to those health care providers
8 in a telemedicine network approved by the insurer.

9 (c) A contract that provides coverage for services under this section may contain a
10 provision for a deductible, copayment or coinsurance requirement for a health care service
11 provided through telemedicine as long as the deductible, copayment or coinsurance does not
12 exceed the deductible, copayment or coinsurance applicable to an in-person consultation.

13 (d) Coverage for health care services under this section shall be consistent with coverage
14 for health care services provided through in-person consultation.

15 SECTION 2. Chapter 118E of the General Laws is hereby amended by inserting after 16 section 10G the following section:—

17 Section 10H. (a) For the purposes of this section, “telemedicine“ as it pertains to the 18 delivery of health care services, shall mean the use of interactive audio, video or other electronic

19 media for the purpose of diagnosis, consultation or treatment. “Telemedicine” shall not include
20 the use of audio-only telephone, facsimile machine or e-mail.

21 (b) MassHealth may limit coverage of telemedicine services to those health care
22 providers in a telemedicine network approved by the MassHealth.

23 (c) A contract that provides coverage for services under this section may contain a
24 provision for a deductible, copayment or coinsurance requirement for a health care service
25 provided through telemedicine as long as the deductible, copayment or coinsurance does not
26 exceed the deductible, copayment or coinsurance applicable to an in-person consultation.

27 (d) Coverage for health care services under this section shall be consistent with coverage
28 for health care services provided through in-person consultation.

29 SECTION 3. Chapter 176A of the General Laws is hereby amended by inserting after 30 section 8EE the following section:—

31 Section 8FF. (a) For the purposes of this section, “telemedicine“ as it pertains to the 32 delivery of health care services, shall mean the use of interactive audio, video or other electronic
33 media for the purpose of diagnosis, consultation or treatment. “Telemedicine” shall not include
34 the use of audio-only telephone, facsimile machine or e-mail.

35 (b) An insurer may limit coverage of telemedicine services to those health care providers
36 in a telemedicine network approved by the insurer.

37 (c) A contract that provides coverage for services under this section may contain a
38 provision for a deductible, copayment or coinsurance requirement for a health care service
39 provided through telemedicine as long as the deductible, copayment or coinsurance does not
40 exceed the deductible, copayment or coinsurance applicable to an in-person consultation.

41 (d) Coverage for health care services under this section shall be consistent with coverage
42 for health care services provided through in-person consultation.
