The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand Thirteen

An Act relative to creating a statutory housing restriction and providing remedies related to statutory housing.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Subsection (b) of section 1 of chapter 30B of the General Laws, as 2 amended by section 4 of chapter 176 of the acts of 2011, is hereby further amended by adding 3 the following clause:-

4 (35) contracts or other actions to acquire or dispose of statutory housing premises as 5 defined in section 17A of chapter 183, including exercise of the statutory housing power to sell, 6 following which the statutory housing restriction continues in force and effect as to the premises 7 as before.

8 SECTION 2. Chapter 183 of the General Laws is hereby amended by adding the 9 following 7 sections:-

10 Section 17A. As used in this section and sections 17B to 17G, inclusive, the following 11 words shall have the following meanings unless the context clearly requires otherwise:

12 "Affordable value", the affordable value of the statutory housing premises under the 13 statutory housing condition and the statutory housing power to sell, unless otherwise defined in 14 the restriction, equal to the consideration paid for the premises by the eligible household owning 15 the premises, subject to the statutory housing restriction adjusted in proportion to any increase of 16 the area median income from the date the eligible household acquired the premises to the date 17 next preceding the sale for which such information is publicly available; provided, however, that 18 in a restriction stating an alternate means of determining the value of the statutory housing 19 premises, the “affordable value” shall be the amount determined as stated in that restriction.

20 "Area median income", the median income for the standard metropolitan statistical area 21 or equivalent area for the statutory housing premises in which the statutory housing premises are 22 located, adjusted for household size, published by the United States Department of Housing and 23 Urban Development, or such other standard adopted by the department of housing and 24 community development to measure individual and household incomes.

25 "Conforming mortgage", a statutory housing restriction having priority over all 26 mortgages, any mortgage which, when aggregated with all then existing mortgages senior to 27 such mortgage, does not secure principal exceeding the affordable value of the statutory housing 28 premises.

29 "Eligible household", the owner and all persons residing together with the owner at the 30 statutory housing premises and whose household income determined in connection with the 31 acquisition of the statutory housing premises does not exceed the maximum household income 32 established by the holder at the time of such acquisition as stated in the deed, covenant or 33 restriction restricting the statutory housing premises, or if no maximum household income is 34 stated in a deed, covenant or restriction, did not exceed 80 per cent of the area median income, 35 adjusted for the number of individuals in the eligible household.

36 "Governmental body", the United States or the commonwealth, acting through any of its 37 departments, divisions, commissions, boards or agencies, or a political subdivision or public 38 instrumentality thereof or a public authority or quasi-public entity or a municipal affordable 39 housing trust or an instrumentality created pursuant to chapter 40F, whether acting for its own 40 account or as an agent or designee for or as assignees of a private individual or private entity 41 which has been required to place such restriction in its chain of title as a condition of receiving 42 financial or other assistance from the governmental body.

43 "Grantor", a person granting a restriction on the statutory housing condition and with the 44 statutory housing power to sell, and an individual acquiring the premises subject to such a 45 restriction previously granted.

46 "Household income", the aggregate combined gross income of all members of a 47 household under standards established by the United States Department of Housing and Urban 48 Development or such other standards established by the department of housing and community 49 development to measure individual and household incomes.

50 "Statutory housing condition", a condition that may be incorporated in a deed, covenant 51 or restriction by reference, whereby the grantor intends, declares and covenants on behalf of the 52 grantor and grantor's heirs, successors and assigns that the grantor and the grantor's heirs, 53 successors and assigns shall:

54 (i) occupy the dwelling unit on the statutory housing premises as the principal 55 residence of the grantor and the grantor's eligible household;

56 (ii) pay and discharge, when due and payable, all debts secured by the statutory 57 housing premises including, without limitation, taxes, mortgages and other voluntary liens and 58 judgments and reimburse the holder on demand for all amounts paid by the holder to discharge 59 such debts, with interest thereon, until reimbursement at the rate applicable to damages in actions 60 for breach of contract obligations.

61 (iii) not encumber the statutory housing premises or any portion of the statutory 62 housing premises in an amount in excess of its affordable value, nor convey, transfer or 63 otherwise dispose of the statutory housing premises or any portion of the statutory housing 64 premises other than as statutory housing premises; and 65 (iv) upon disposition, convey a fee interest in the statutory housing premises only 66 to a member of an eligible household, approved in writing by the holder, for consideration not 67 exceeding the affordable value of the statutory housing premises at the time of the conveyance; 68 provided, however, that a continuing or newly-acquired ownership, with continued occupancy as 69 a principal residence by the surviving spouse of a qualified owner in the eligible household who 70 resided at the statutory housing premises as the surviving spouse's last principal residence before 71 the qualified owner's death, without regard to the surviving spouse's income, shall not constitute 72 a breach of this condition.

73 "Statutory housing covenant", in a conveyance of real estate:

74 (i) the grantor, for the grantor and the grantor's heirs, executors, administrators, 75 successors and assigns, covenants with the holder and its successors and assigns that: (a) the 76 granted statutory housing premises are free from all encumbrances made by the grantor; (b) the 77 grantor and the grantor's heirs, executors, administrators, successors and assigns shall warrant 78 and defend the same to the holder and the holder's successors and assigns forever against the 79 lawful claims and demands of all persons claiming by, through or under the grantor, but against 80 none other; (c) the grantor and the grantor's heirs, successors or assigns, during their respective 81 ownership of the statutory housing premises, shall comply fully with the statutory housing 82 condition; and (d) the grantor and the grantor's heirs, successors or assigns, in case a sale shall be 83 made under the statutory housing power to sell, shall, upon request, execute, acknowledge and 84 deliver to any purchaser a deed of release confirming such sale and that the holder and the 85 holder's successors and assigns are appointed and constituted the attorneys-in-fact irrevocable of 86 the the grantor to execute and deliver to any such purchaser a deed and a full transfer of all 87 policies of insurance on the buildings upon the land covered by the statutory housing restriction 88 at the time of sale.

89 "Statutory housing power to sell", the authority of the holder or its successors or assigns, 90 which may be incorporated in a deed, covenant or restriction by reference, upon a default in the 91 performance or observance of the foregoing or other condition reasonably related to maintaining 92 the premises as statutory housing premises, to sell the statutory housing premises or such portion 93 of the statutory housing premises as may remain subject to the statutory housing restriction, 94 together with all improvements thereon, by deed, first complying with the General Laws relating 95 to the holder's sale of statutory housing premises by the exercise of the statutory housing power 96 to sell, and may convey the same by proper deed to the purchaser absolutely and in fee simple, 97 but subject always to the statutory housing covenants on the statutory housing condition and with 98 the statutory housing power to sell; provided, however, that such sale shall forever bar the 99 grantor and all persons claiming rights of fee simple ownership under the grantor or claiming 100 mortgages or other liens against the statutory housing premises in excess of the affordable value 101 from all right and interest in the statutory housing premises, whether at law or in equity.

102 "Statutory housing premises", residential real property subject to a statutory housing 103 restriction.

104 "Statutory housing restriction", a restriction containing the statutory housing covenants, 105 the statutory housing condition or the statutory housing power to sell.

106 Section 17B. A deed, covenant or restriction in substance following the form entitled 107 Deed with Statutory Housing Restriction or the form entitled Statutory Housing Restriction shall, 108 when duly executed, have the force and effect of an affordable housing restriction as defined in 109 section 31 of chapter 184, without limitation as to the enforcement thereof as stated in section 32 110 of said chapter 184, to the use of the holder and the holder's successors and assigns with statutory 111 housing covenants, upon the statutory housing condition and with the statutory housing power to 112 sell, to secure the performance of the statutory housing restriction and any obligation therein 113 specified. The parties may insert in such restriction any other lawful agreement or condition 114 reasonably related to the creation, maintenance and preservation of the premises as statutory 115 housing premises.

116 Section 17C. The following entities shall each be eligible to be a holder of a statutory 117 housing restriction: a governmental body or an agency thereof, a nonprofit organization, a 118 church, employer, university or other entity that is otherwise administering government-119 sponsored, federal, state or local subsidy programs and any other entity so authorized by the 120 department of housing and community development or a successor agency; provided, however, 121 that no restriction granted on the statutory housing power to sell shall be invalid by reason of 122 being held by other than an eligible entity provided that it is assigned to an eligible entity before 123 the exercise of the statutory housing power to sell.

124 A city, by the mayor, unless otherwise provided by charter, ordinance or vote of the city 125 council, and a town, by the board of selectmen, unless otherwise provided by charter, by-law, or

126 vote of the town, may acquire by gift, purchase, grant, bequest, devise, lease or otherwise a 127 statutory housing restriction on real property resulting from regulatory action or funding by the 128 city or town, or otherwise authorized by the city or town, and may hold and exercise all the 129 holder's rights, including the authority to acquire and reconvey the real property as statutory 130 housing premises and otherwise administer and enforce the statutory housing restriction.

131 Section 17D. On written notice from an owner of statutory housing premises or from a 132 mortgagee, proposed mortgagee or other person holding a lien on such premises, the holder shall 133 state in writing the affordable value of the statutory housing premises as of the nearest date for 134 which such determination can be made from public record and such other facts known to the 135 holder necessary to establish whether the owner or other person is in compliance with the 136 statutory housing restriction. Such certificate shall be conclusive as to a mortgagee or other 137 person relying thereon and providing value to the owner within the affordable value or 138 transferring the property pursuant to the statutory housing restriction. The holder may charge a 139 reasonable fee for providing the certificate.

140 Section 17E. A statutory housing restriction shall continue until terminated by agreement 141 of the holder, or by legislative or judicial action, or otherwise according to law unless a term of 142 years is stated in the restriction. On termination of a statutory housing restriction for any reason 143 prior to expiration of its term and after payment of the affordable value to the owner, mortgagees 144 and other lienholders according to the priority established by law, or such greater amount as is 145 payable under section 3 of chapter 244A, as to holders of conforming mortgages, the holder 146 alone shall be entitled to receive the difference between the affordable value of the statutory 147 housing premises immediately before termination, regardless of the remaining term of the 148 statutory housing restriction, and the fair market value of those premises immediately after 149 termination. Such amount shall be considered a first priority lien in the event that the statutory 150 housing restriction is terminated by judicial action in a bankruptcy proceeding.

151 The statutory housing covenants, statutory housing condition and statutory housing 152 power to sell shall not be subject to section 23 and sections 26 to 30, inclusive, of chapter 184 153 and shall have the benefits of section 32 of said chapter 184 without approval otherwise required 154 thereunder, but all nonstatutory provisions of a statutory housing restriction shall remain subject 155 to said section 23 and said sections 26 to 30, inclusive, of said chapter 184 and shall have the 156 benefits of said section 32 of said chapter 184 only if approved as stated therein.

157 Section 17F. Unless otherwise agreed in an instrument appearing of record, following a 158 mortgagee's foreclosure by a regulated for-profit, not-for-profit or governmental mortgagee 159 holding a first mortgage on statutory housing premises which was subordinate to a statutory 160 housing restriction, in addition to remaining restricted at the affordable value for eligible 161 households as stated in the restriction, only the statutory housing covenants, the statutory 162 housing condition and the statutory housing power to sell, to the extent appearing in the statutory 163 housing restriction, and the statutory obligations of the holder to mortgagees holding conforming

164 mortgages, shall continue in effect, binding the statutory housing premises, and all other 165 provisions of the restriction shall be extinguished.

166 Section 17G. Ownership of statutory housing premises, either by the executor or 167 administrator of an owner in an eligible household, or by the holder or by a mortgagee or other 168 lienholder, or its designee, or by an entity eligible to be a holder of a statutory housing 169 restriction, pursuant to exercise of lawful remedies against the owner, shall not constitute a 170 violation of the statutory housing covenants or the statutory housing condition so long as the 171 premises are being held for resale to, and are resold to, an eligible household as statutory housing 172 premises for an amount not exceeding the affordable value or, in the case of a holder of a 173 conforming mortgage, such greater amount as payable to the mortgagee under section 3 of 174 chapter 244A; provided, however, that the premises shall not be rented, leased or otherwise 175 occupied by a household that is not an eligible household during the period in which the 176 premises are being held for resale.

177 SECTION 3. Said chapter 183 is hereby further amended by inserting after section 22 the 178 following section:-

243 said chapter 183, together with the holder of the housing restriction or its designee or any entity

292 days after entry and the same shall be recorded in the manner required for the memorandum of
