The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand Thirteen

An Act providing protection from child enticement.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 Section 26C of chapter 265 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2010 Official
2 Edition, is hereby amended by inserting after the subsection (b), the following subsection:-

3 (c) No person, by any means and without privilege to do so, shall knowingly entice any 4 child under the age of 16, or someone he believes to be a child under the age of 16, to enter into 5 any vehicle, if

6 (1) The person does not have the express or implied permission of the parent, guardian, 7 or other legal custodian of the child in undertaking the activity; and

8 (2) (i) The person is not a law enforcement officer, emergency services provider as 9 defined in section 71-507, firefighter, or other person who regularly provides emergency 10 services, is not the operator of a bookmobile or other such vehicle operated by the state or a 11 political subdivision and used for informing, educating, organizing, or transporting children, is 12 not a paid employee of, or a volunteer for, a nonprofit or religious organization which provides 13 activities for children, and is not an employee or agent of or a volunteer acting under the 14 direction of any board of education or (ii) the person is a person listed in subdivision (c)(2)(i) of 15 this section but, at the time the person undertakes the activity, he or she is not acting within the 16 scope of his or her lawful duties in that capacity. (3) It is an affirmative defense to a charge

17 under this subsection (c) that the person undertook the activity in response to a bona fide 18 emergency situation or that the person undertook the activity in response to a reasonable belief 19 that it was necessary to preserve the health, safety, or welfare of the child.
