SENATE No. 726

By Mr. Eldridge, a petition (accompanied by bill, Senate, No. 726) of James B. Eldridge and Kate Hogan for legislation relative to construction defect claims by condominium owners. The Judiciary.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand Thirteen

An Act relative to construction defect claims by condominium owners.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Section 2B of Chapter 260 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2010
2 Official Edition, is hereby amended in line 4 by inserting after the words “section thirty-nine A 3 of chapter seven” the following words:- and of a condominium as defined in chapter 183A

4 SECTION 2. Said section 2B of said chapter 260, as so appearing, is hereby further 5 amended by inserting at the end thereof the following paragraph:-

6 Actions of tort for damages arising out of any deficiency, as such term is used and 7 understood herein above, in the design, planning, construction, or general administration of an 8 improvement, as such terms are used and understood herein above, to a condominium, as defined 9 in chapter 183A, including any deficiency in the condition of the common area at the time the 10 Declarant, as defined in said chapter 183A, records a master deed, shall be commenced only 11 within three years next after the cause of action accrues, unless the Declarant shall remain in 12 control of the organization of unit owners at the time the cause of action would otherwise accrue,
13 in which case the cause of action shall not accrue prior to the Declarant Control Termination
14 Date; provided, however, that in no event shall actions be commenced more than six years after 15 the later of the dates of: (1) the Declarant Control Termination Date; (2) the opening of the 16 improvement to use; or (3) substantial completion of all phases of the condominium or expiration 17 of the phasing right (whichever is earlier) and the taking of possession for occupancy by the 18 owner. For purposes of this paragraph only, “Declarant Control Termination Date” shall mean 19 the later of the dates of: (a) when the managing board of the Organization of unit owners is 20 comprised of a majority of unit owners other than the Declarant or Declarant’s appointees; or (b)

21 when the Declarant or any entity controlled by the Declarant shall own or control less than 22 twenty-five per cent of the total units at the condominium.

23 SECTION 3. This act shall apply to all master deeds, declaration of trusts, bylaws and 24 any amendments thereto, without regard to whether such master deed, declaration of trust, 25 bylaws, or amendments were recorded before, on or after the effective date of this act.
