The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand Thirteen

An Act relative to dissemination of criminal offender record information to providers of in-home cleaning services.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 Chapter 6 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2010 Official Edition, is hereby 2 amended by inserting after section 172K the following section:-

3 Section 172L. Dissemination of criminal offender record information to providers of in-4 home cleaning services.

5 For the purposes of this section the term “provider of in-home cleaning services” shall 6 mean any individual, corporation, limited liability company, organization or association 7 contracting to provide cleaning services in private residences.

8 Notwithstanding any provision of section 172, criminal offender information shall be 9 available to any provider of in-home cleaning services, for the purpose of obtaining criminal 10 offender record information on an applicant under final consideration for, or an individual 11 currently employed in, a position that involves the provision of in-home cleaning services. Any 12 such provider of in-home cleaning services shall obtain conviction and arrest data from the 13 criminal history systems board on an applicant under final consideration for a position that 14 involves the provision in-home cleaning services. Any provider of in-home cleaning services

15 which obtains information under this section shall prohibit the dissemination of such information 16 for any purpose other than the provision of in-home cleaning services.

17 A provider of in-home cleaning services may employ an individual for a position that 18 involves the provision of in-home cleaning services on a conditional basis prior to receiving the 19 results of such individual's criminal offender record check from the criminal history systems 20 board. No provider of in-home cleaning services shall be liable for civil damages to any 21 individual so conditionally employed and subsequently discharged by reason of information 22 received as a result of a criminal offender record information check completed pursuant to this 23 section.
