An Act clearing titles to foreclosed properties.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1           SECTION 1. Section 15 of chapter 244 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2010
2 Official Edition, is hereby amended by adding the following paragraph:

3           Such affidavit, if executed in the statutory form, shall, after three years from the date of 4 its recording, be conclusive evidence in favor of an arm’s-length third party purchaser for value,
5 at or subsequent to the foreclosure sale, that the power of sale under the foreclosed mortgage and 6 the provisions of this chapter and section 21 of chapter 183 was duly exercised provided,
7 however, that the recording of such affidavit and the expiration of said three-year period from the 8 recording of the affidavit shall not relieve the affiant or other person on whose behalf the 9 affidavit was executed and recorded from any liability for failure to comply with this section,
10 section fourteen of this chapter or any other requirement of law with respect to said foreclosure;
11 provided further, that the arm’s length third party purchaser for value relying on such affidavit
12 shall not be liable for any failure of the foreclosing party to so comply and title to the real
13 property thereby acquired shall not be set aside on account of such failure. For purposes of this
14 section, the term “arm’s length, third party purchaser for value” shall include such purchaser’s
15 heirs, successors and assigns.

16           SECTION 2. The provisions of section 1 shall apply to such affidavits recorded before,
17 on, or after the effective date of this act.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect 180 days from the date of enactment.
