SENATE No. 793

By Ms. Spilka, a petition (accompanied by bill, Senate, No. 793) of Karen E. Spilka, Sal N. DiDomenico, John V. Fernandes and Michael O. Moore for legislation to protect the Commonwealth's residents from identity theft. The Judiciary.

[SIMILAR MATTER FILED IN PREVIOUS SESSION
SEE SENATE, NO. 869 OF 2011-2012.]

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand Thirteen
—————

An Act to protect the commonwealth's residents from identity theft.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Section 37E of chapter 266 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2010
2 Official Edition, is hereby amended by inserting before the definition “Harass” the following
3 definition:-

4 “Law enforcement agency”, any law enforcement organizations of the Commonwealth,
5 or any of its political subdivisions.

6 “Direct victim”, any person or entity whose identity has been transferred, used, or 7 possessed in violation of this section.

8 SECTION 2. Section 37E of chapter 266 of the General Laws, is hereby amended by 9 inserting after the definition “Harass” the following definition:-

10 “Identity theft passport”, a card or certificate issued by the attorney general that verifies
11 the identity of the person who is a victim of identity theft or identity fraud.

12 “Identity theft report”, a police incident report filed with a law enforcement agency 13 containing specific details of an identity theft.

14 “Indirect victim”, a corporation that incurs loss or harm as a result of a crime, a 15 government entity that incurs loss or harm as a result of a crime, family members, guardians,
16 custodians of a minor, incompetent, incapacitated, or deceased persons that incurs loss or harm
17 as a result of a crime, but not the person charged with or alleged to have committed the crime.

18 SECTION 3. Subsection (d) of section 37E of chapter 266 of the General Laws is hereby 19 amended by inserting after the word “fees.” the following clause:-

20 Upon written request by the victim, or by the prosecutor, the court shall provide to the 21 victim, without cost:

- 22 (1) a certified copy of the complaint filed in the matter;
- 23 (2) the judgment of conviction; and
- 24 (3) an order setting forth the facts and circumstances of the offense.

25 SECTION 4. Section 37E of chapter 266 of the General Laws is hereby amended by 26 striking out subsection (e) and inserting in place thereof the following subsection:-

27 (e) A person who has learned, or reasonably suspects that the person’s personal 28 identifying information has been unlawfully obtained or used by another, may initiate a law 29 enforcement investigation by contacting the local law enforcement that has jurisdiction over the 30 person’s residence. A law enforcement officer shall accept an identity theft report from such 31 victim and shall provide a copy to such victim, within 24 hours. Such police incident reports may 32 be filed in any county where a victim resides or has a place of business, or in any county where 33 the breach of security occurred, in whole or in part. The local law enforcement agency with 34 whom the victim filed the initial complaint under this section shall begin an investigation of the 35 facts, and shall, if the suspect resides in another jurisdiction, or if the suspected crime was 36 committed in a different jurisdiction, or if information pertaining to the crime exists in another 37 jurisdiction, notify the law enforcement agency in that jurisdiction of the matter.

38 SECTION 5. Section 37E of chapter 266 of the General Laws is hereby amended by 39 inserting after subsection (f) the following subsections:-

40 (g) (1) The department of state police may initiate investigations and enforce this section 41 throughout the Commonwealth without regard to any limitation otherwise applicable to the 42 department’s activities in a municipality or other political subdivision. The authority granted in 43 this subsection may be exercised only in accordance with regulations that the department of state 44 police adopts.

45 (2) A law enforcement officer of a municipality or county may investigate violations of 46 this section throughout the Commonwealth without any limitation as to jurisdiction and to the 47 same extent as a law enforcement officer of the department of state police. The authority granted

48 in this subsection may be exercised only if an act related to the crime was committed in the 49 investigating law enforcement agency's jurisdiction or if the complaining witness resides, or has 50 a principal place of business, in the investigating law enforcement agency's jurisdiction.

51 (3) A law enforcement officer may arrest, without a warrant, any person he has probable 52 cause to believe has committed the offense of identity fraud as defined in this section.

53 (h) If action is taken under the authority granted in subsection (f) of this section,
54 notification of an investigation:

55 (1) in a municipal corporation, shall be made to the chief of police or designee of the 56 chief of police;

57 (2) in Boston, shall be made to the Police Commissioner or the Police Commissioner's 58 designee; and

59 (3) on property owned, leased, or operated by or under the control of the Massachusetts
60 Bay Transportation Authority or the Massachusetts Port Authority, shall be made to the 61 respective chief of police or the chief's designee.

62 (i) (1) A district attorney or the attorney general may investigate and prosecute a 63 violation of this section or a violation of any crime based on the act establishing a violation of 64 this section.

65 (j) In any criminal proceeding brought under this section, the crime is considered to be 66 committed in the municipality:

67 (1) where the direct victim, or indirect victim resides or has a place of business;

68 (2) where the perpetrator resides;

69 (3) where any part of the violation occurred, regardless of whether the defendant was 70 ever actually present in that municipality; or

71 (4) in any other municipality instrumental to the completion of the offense, regardless of 72 whether the defendant was ever physically present in that municipality.

73 (k) In addition to the criminal penalties in subsections (d), of this section, any person who 74 commits an act made unlawful by this section shall be liable to the person to whom the 75 identifying information belonged, or the entity that suffered financial loss, for civil damages.

76 (1) A victim under this section may bring an action in the superior court of her county of 77 residence, or any county in which any part of the act took place, regardless of whether the person 78 who committed the violation was ever physically present in that municipality.

79 (2) The victim may institute a civil action to:

- 80 (i) Enjoin and restrain future acts that would constitute a violation of this section;
81 (ii) Recover $5000 for each incident, or 3 times actual damages, whichever is greater;
82 (iii) Recover reasonable attorneys' fees and costs; and 83 (iv) Additional relief the court deems necessary.

84 (3) A financial institution, insurance company, or business that suffers direct financial 85 loss as a result of the offense may bring an action under this section and shall also be entitled to 86 damages, but damages to natural persons shall be fully satisfied prior to any payment to a 87 financial institution, insurance company, bonding association or business.

88 (4) If the identifying information of a deceased person is used in a manner made unlawful 89 by this section, or any other general or special law, the deceased person's estate shall have the 90 right to recover damages pursuant to subsection (g) of this section.

91 (5) No action under this section shall be brought but within five years from the date when 92 the violation is discovered or, in the exercise of reasonable care, should have been discovered.

93 (6) Civil action under this section does not depend on whether or not a criminal 94 prosecution has been, or will be, instituted under this section for the acts which are the subject of 95 the civil action.

96 (7) A final judgment rendered in favor of the Commonwealth in any criminal proceeding 97 shall estop the defendant from denying the same conduct in any civil action brought pursuant to 98 this section.

99 (1) (1) A natural person who has, under this section, filed, with a law enforcement agency,
100 a police report alleging identity theft under this section, may apply for an identity theft passport
101 through any law enforcement agency, or directly through the attorney general. A law 102 enforcement agency that receives an application for an identity theft passport shall submit the 103 application and a copy of the identity theft report to the attorney general for processing and 104 issuance of an identity theft passport. The attorney general, in cooperation with any law 105 enforcement agency in the Commonwealth, may issue an identity theft passport to a person who 106 is a victim of identity theft in this Commonwealth and who has filed a police report citing that 107 such person is a victim of a violation of this chapter. This passport shall be in the form of a card 108 or certificate, and must include photo identification.

109 (2) The attorney general shall perform a background check on the identity theft victim 110 before issuing an identity theft passport under this section.

111 (3) An identity theft victim who has been issued an identity theft passport under this 112 section may present this identity theft passport to:

113 (i) a law enforcement agency to help prevent the arrest or detention of the person for an 114 offense committed by another using the person's personal identifying information; or 115 (ii) any of the victim's creditors to aid in the investigation of:

116 (A) a fraudulent account that was opened in the person's name; or 117 (B) a fraudulent charge that is made against an account of the person.

118 (iii) A consumer reporting agency, as defined in § 603(f) of the federal Fair Credit
119 Reporting Act (15 U.S.C. § 1681a(f)), to expedite removal of accounts opened fraudulently by 120 another and correcting credit report information.

121 (4) A law enforcement agency or creditor that is presented with an identity theft passport
122 under subsections (3)(i) or (3)(ii) of this section has sole discretion to accept or reject the identity
123 theft passport. The consumer reporting agency must accept the passport as an official notice of a 124 dispute and must include notice of the dispute in all future reports that contain disputed 125 information caused by the identity fraud.

126 (5) An application for an identity theft passport submitted under this section, including 127 any supporting documentation:

128 (i) is not a public record; and

129 (ii) may not be released except to a law enforcement agency in any state.

130 (6) The attorney general shall adopt regulations to carry out the provisions of this section.
131 The regulations must include a procedure by which the Office of the attorney general is 132 reasonably assured that an identity theft passport applicant has an identity fraud claim that is 133 legitimate and adequately substantiated.

134 SECTION 6. Chapter 266 of the General Laws is hereby amended by inserting after 135 section 37E the following section:-

136 Section 37F. (a) For purpose of this section, the following words and terms shall have 137 the following meanings:-

138 "Advertisement", means a communication, the primary purpose of which is the 139 commercial promotion of a commercial product or service, including content on an Internet Web 140 site operated for a commercial purpose.

141 "Authorized user", with respect to a computer, means a person who owns or is authorized 142 by the owner or lessee to use the computer. An "authorized user" does not include a person or 143 entity that has obtained authorization to use the computer solely through the use of an end user 144 license agreement.

145 “ Computer or Internet settings”, security or other settings that protect information
146 about the authorized user, any page that appears when an authorized user launches an Internet
147 browser or similar software program used to access and navigate the Internet, the default
148 provider or Web proxy the authorized user uses to access or search the Internet, the authorized 149 user’s list of bookmarks used to access Web pages.

150 “Computer software”, a sequence of instructions written in any programming language
151 that is executed on a computer.

152 “Computer virus" means a computer program or other set of instructions that is designed 153 to degrade the performance of or disable a computer or computer network and is designed to 154 have the ability to replicate itself on other computers or computer networks without the 155 authorization of the owners of those computers or computer networks.

156 "Consumer" means an individual who resides in this state and who uses the computer in 157 question primarily for personal, family, or household purposes.

158 "Damage" means any significant impairment to the integrity or availability of data, 159 software, a system, or information.

160 "Execute," when used with respect to computer software, means the performance of the 161 functions or the carrying out of the instructions of the computer software.

162 "Intentionally deceptive," by means of an intentionally and materially false or fraudulent
163 statement, by means of a statement or description that intentionally omits or misrepresents
164 material information in order to deceive the consumer, by means of an intentional and material 165 failure to provide any notice to an authorized user regarding the download or installation of 166 software in order to deceive the consumer.

167 “Internet" means the global information system that is logically linked together by a 168 globally unique address space based on the Internet Protocol (IP), or its subsequent extensions,
169 and that is able to support communications using the Transmission Control Protocol/Internet
170 Protocol (TCP/IP) suite, or its subsequent extensions, or other IP-compatible protocols, and that 171 provides, uses, or makes accessible, either publicly or privately, high level services layered on 172 the communications and related infrastructure described in this subdivision.

173 “Payment card”, a credit card, debit card, or any other card that is issued to an authorized 174 user and that allows the user to obtain, purchase, or receive goods, services, money, or 175 anything else of value.

176 “Person”, any natural person, business, or state or local agency or political subdivision.

177 “Personally identifiable information”, any name or number that may be used, alone or in 178 conjunction with any other information, to assume the identity of an individual, including any

179 name, address, telephone number, driver's license number, social security number, place of 180 employment, employee identification number, mother's maiden name, demand deposit account 181 number, savings account number, credit card number or computer password identification.

182 "Reencoder", an electronic device that places encoded information from the magnetic 183 strip or stripe of a payment card on to the magnetic strip or stripe of a payment card on to the 184 magnetic strip or stripe of a different payment card.

185 "Scanning device", a scanner, reader, or any other electronic device that is used to access, 186 read, scan, obtain, memorize, or store, temporarily or permanently, information encoded on the 187 magnetic strip or stripe of a payment card.

188 "Skimming device", a machine or instrument used to deceptively access, read, scan, 189 obtain, memorize, or store, temporarily or permanently, payment card information or a person's 190 personal identification number, used in an otherwise legitimate transaction.

191 (b) Any person who is not an authorized user shall not:

192 (1) Transmit computer software to the authorized user's computer with actual 193 knowledge, or with conscious avoidance of actual knowledge, and to use such software, through 194 intentionally deceptive means, to:

195 (i) collect personally identifiable information, or collect information that meets any of the 196 following criteria:

197 (A) All keystrokes made by an authorized user who uses the computer and transfer that 198 information from the computer to another person;

199 (B) The Internet sites visited by an authorized user.

200 (ii) modify computer or Internet settings;

201 (iii) prevent an authorized user's reasonable efforts to block installation, or execution of, 202 or to disable, software, by:

203 (A) falsely representing that software has been disabled.

204 (B) causing software that the authorized user has properly removed or disabled to 205 automatically reinstall or reactivate on the computer without the authorization of an authorized 206 user;

207 (C) presenting the authorized user with an option to decline installation of software with 208 knowledge that, when the option is selected by the authorized user, the installation nevertheless 209 proceeds.

210 (iv) remove, disable, or render inoperative security, antispyware or antivirus computer 211 software;

212 (v) take control, through intentionally deceptive means, of the consumer's computer;

213 (vi) deceptively install, and execute, on the computer one or more additional computer
214 software components with the intent of causing an authorized user to use the components in a 215 way that violates any other provision of this section;

216 (vii) access or use the consumer's modem or Internet service for the purpose of causing 217 damage to the consumer's computer or causing an authorized user to incur unauthorized financial 218 charges;

219 (viii) use the consumer's computer as part of an activity performed by a group of 220 computers for the purpose of causing damage to another computer, including launching a denial 221 of service attack;

222 (ix) open multiple, sequential, stand-alone advertisements in the consumer's Internet
223 browser, without the authorization of an authorized user, and with knowledge that a reasonable 224 computer user cannot close the advertisements without turning off the computer or closing the 225 consumer's Internet browser;

226 (2) By means of an Internet site, electronic mail message, or otherwise through use of the 227 Internet, to solicit, request, or take action to induce another person to provide identifying 228 information by representing itself to be a business without the authority or approval of the 229 business.

230 (c) No person shall knowingly, willfully, and with the intent to defraud, possess or use:

231 (1) a scanning device to access, read, obtain, memorize or store, temporarily or 232 permanently, information encoded on the magnetic strip or stripe of a payment card without the 233 permission of the authorized user of the payment card;

234 (2) a reencoder to place encoded information on the magnetic strip or stripe of a payment 235 card or any electronic medium that allows an authorized transaction to occur, without the 236 permission of the authorized user of the payment card from which the information is being 237 reencoded;

238 (3) a skimming device, or a camera, to obtain the account number or PIN of a payment
239 card or any electronic medium that allows an authorized transaction to occur, without the 240 permission of the authorized user of the payment card from which the information is being 241 skimmed.

242 (d) Any scanning device or reencoder or skimming device described in this section 243 owned by the defendant and possessed or used in violation of subsection (c) may be seized and

244 be destroyed as contraband by law enforcement officials of the jurisdiction in which the scanning 245 device or reencoder or skimming device was seized.

246 (e) Any computer, computer system, computer network, or any software or data, owned 247 by the defendant, which is used during the commission of any public offense described in this 248 section, or any computer, owned by the defendant, which is used as a repository for the storage
249 of software or data illegally obtained in violation of this section shall be subject to forfeiture.

250 (f) Nothing in this section shall apply to any monitoring of, or interaction with, a
251 subscriber's Internet or other network connection or service, or a protected computer, by a
252 telecommunications carrier, cable operator, computer hardware or software provider, or provider
253 of information service or interactive computer service for network or computer security
254 purposes, diagnostics, technical support, repair, authorized updates of software or system
255 firmware, authorized remote system management, or detection or prevention of the unauthorized
256 use of or fraudulent or other illegal activities in connection with a network, service, or computer 257 software, including scanning for and removing software proscribed under this chapter.

258 (g) Any person who violates this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable by 259 a term in a county jail or house of correction not to exceed 1 year, or a fine of $1,000, or both the 260 imprisonment and fine.

261 (h) Any person who violates this section and sells, distributes, or uses such information
262 shall be guilty of a felony and punished by a fine of not more than $5,000 or imprisonment in a 263 state prison for not more than 2 1/2 years, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

264 (i) The attorney general may bring an action against a person who committed a violation
265 under this section to enjoin further violations, recover a civil penalty of up to $2500 per violation, 266 or both.

267 (j) Any person who is adversely affected by a violation of this section may bring an 268 action to enjoin further violations, or recover the greater of actual damages or $2500 for each
269 violation, or both. The court may award costs and reasonable attorneys' fees to a prevailing 270 party, as well as treble damages when the defendant has engaged in a pattern of violations. The 271 remedies provided in this section do not preclude the seeking of remedies, including criminal 272 remedies, under any other applicable provision of law.

273 SECTION 7. Amend chapter 266 of the General Laws by inserting after section 37F the 274 following section:-

275 Section 37G. (a) For the purposes of this section, the following terms shall have the 276 following meanings:-

277 "Identity theft" or "Identity fraud", whoever, with intent to defraud, obtains personal 278 identifying information about another person, or poses as another person, without the express

279 authorization of that person and uses such person’s personal identifying information to obtain or 280 to attempt to obtain money, credit, goods, services, anything of value, any identification card or 281 other evidence of such person’s identity, or to harass another.

282 “Identity theft report”, a report filed with a law enforcement agency containing specific 283 details of an identity theft.

284 “Law enforcement agency”, any police department of the commonwealth, or any of its 285 political subdivisions.

286 “Technology based identity theft”, deceptively obtaining another individual’s personally
287 identifying information, through use of the Internet, an electronic database, or any other means 288 of technology.

289 (b) The attorney general, in collaboration with any law enforcement agency, shall create a 290 uniform identity theft intake procedure for law enforcement, to include the following:

291 (1) an identity theft report form as required under subsection (e) of section 37E of chapter
292 266 that meets the requirements of the Federal Trade Commission Division of Privacy and 293 Identity Protection Report Form.

294 (2) identify or establish organizations dedicated to collecting and maintaining information
295 regarding identity theft, identity fraud and technology based identity theft and identity fraud.

296 (3) transmitting said identity theft report under paragraph (1) to the organizations
297 identified under (b)(2).

298 (4) the creation, in collaboration with the Federal Trade Commission, and U.S. Secret
299 Service, of a uniform identity theft resource and instructional steps guide to be presented to all 300 alleged victims.

301 (c) Law enforcement agencies shall:

302 (1) adhere to the procedure established in subsection (b) when an identity theft victim 303 files a complaint.

304 (2) participate in any organization deemed appropriate by the attorney general for 305 combating identity theft.

306 (3) report all identity theft activity to the Massachusetts Identity Theft and Financial 307 Crimes Task Force, the FTC Clearinghouse Consumer Sentinel, or any other organizations
308 identified or established by the attorney general under (b)(2) of this section.

309 (4) report all technology based identity theft activity to the New England Electronic 310 Crimes Task Force and the Internet Crime Complaint Center.

311 (5) meet regularly with major banking, financial services and credit institutions, and their 312 leadership, to discuss cooperative methods to combat identity thieves and assist victims.

313 (6) participate in the Office of the attorney general’s Cyber Crime Initiative training 314 events pertaining to identity fraud or identity theft.

315 (7) make available to officers of law enforcement agencies the “Identity Crime: An 316 Interactive Resource Guide,” a training guide for law enforcement officers published by a 317 cooperative effort with the U.S. Secret Service, U.S. Postal Inspection Service, Federal Trade
318 Commission, and the International Association of Chiefs of Police.

319 SECTION 8. Subsection (a) of section 38 of chapter 22C of the General Laws is hereby 320 amended by inserting after the word “agencies” in line 4, the following words:-

321 “information concerning illegal activities generally described as identity theft or identity 322 fraud,”.

323 SECTION 9. Subsection (d) of section 38 of chapter 22C of the General Laws is hereby 324 amended by inserting after the word “literature” in line 38, the following words:-

325 “, identity theft, identity fraud”.

326 SECTION 10. Chapter 6 of the General Laws is hereby amended by inserting after 327 section 116F the following section:-

328 Section 116G. (a) The municipal police training committee shall provide instruction for 329 police officers in identifying, responding to and reporting all incidents of identity fraud, as 330 defined in section 37E of chapter 266. The municipal police training committee shall include
331 such instruction in all curricula for recruits and in-service trainees and in all police academies 332 operated or certified by said committee.

333 SECTION 11. Section 2 of chapter 93H of the General Laws is hereby amended by 334 inserting after subsection (c) the following subsection:-

335 (d) Each state department and state agency shall enact and maintain a permanent privacy
336 policy that includes, but is not limited to, the following principles:

337 (1) personal information is only obtained through lawful means.

338 (2) the purposes for which personal information is collected are specified at or prior to 339 the time of collection, and any subsequent use is limited to the fulfillment of purposes not 340 inconsistent with those purposes previously specified.

341 (3) personal information shall not be disclosed, made available, or otherwise used for 342 purposes other than those specified, except with the consent of the subject of the data, or as 343 authorized by law or regulation.

344 (4) personal information collected must be relevant to the purpose for which it is 345 collected.

346 (5) the general means by which personal information is protected against loss, 347 unauthorized access, use modification or disclosure shall be posted, unless such disclosure of 348 general means would compromise legitimate state department or state agency objectives or law 349 enforcement purposes.

350 (6) each state department or state agency shall designate an individual within that 351 department or agency to implement the privacy policy within that department or agency.

352 SECTION 12. Chapter 93H of the General Laws is hereby amended by inserting after 353 section 2 the following new sections:-

354 Section 2A. (a) As used in sections 2A to 2B, inclusive, the following words shall have 355 the following meanings, unless the context requires otherwise:-

356 “Deceptive identification document”, any document not issued by a government agency
357 of this state, another state, the federal government, a foreign government, a political subdivision
358 of a foreign government, an international government, or an international quasi-governmental 359 organization, which purports to be, or which might deceive an ordinary reasonable person into 360 believing that it is, a document issued by such an agency, including, but not limited to, a driver’s 361 license, identification card, birth certificate, baptism certificate, passport, or social security card.

362 “Document-making device”, an implement, tool, equipment, impression, laminate, card, 363 template, computer file, computer disk, electronic device, hologram, laminate machine or 364 computer hardware or software.

365 “Password” or “personal identification number”, a unique and random number or a 366 unique and random combination of numbers, letters or symbols.

367 “Person”, natural person, corporation, association, state or local agency or political 368 subdivision, partnership or other legal entity.

369 “Social security number”, the nine digit number assigned by the federal government as a 370 method to account for an individual’s taxable earnings.

371 (b) No person shall:

372 (1) intentionally communicate or make available to the public an individual’s social 373 security number;

374 (2) print a social security number on any card required for the individual to access 375 products or services provided by the person or entity;

376 (3) require an individual to transmit her social security number over the Internet, unless 377 the connection is secure or the social security number is encrypted;

378 (4) require an individual to use her social security number to access an Internet website,
379 unless a password or personal identification number is also required.

380 (5) print a social security number on any materials that are mailed to the individual,
381 unless state or federal law requires the social security number to be on the document. Social 382 Security numbers may be included in applications and forms sent by mail, including documents 383 sent as part of an application or enrollment process, or to establish, amend or terminate an 384 account, contract or policy, or to confirm the accuracy of the social security number. A social 385 security number that is permitted to be mailed under this section may not be printed, in whole or 386 in part, on a postcard or other mailer not requiring an envelope, or visible on the envelope or 387 without the envelope having been opened.

388 (6) place a social security number in files with unrestricted employee access;

389 (7) file a document available for public inspection that contains a social security number 390 of any other person, unless the person is a dependent child or has consented to the filing.

391 (8) print more than the last four digits of an employee's social security number on 392 employee pay stubs or itemized statements.

393 (9) encode or embed a social security number on a card or document after removing the 394 social security number as required by this statute;

395 (10) sell, lease, lend, trade, rent an individual's Social Security number;

396 (11) otherwise intentionally disclose to a third party when the party making the disclosure
397 knows or, in the exercise of reasonable diligence, would have reason to believe that the third 398 party lacks a legitimate purpose for obtaining the individual's social security number.

399 (c) Any person that collects social security numbers in the course of business shall 400 create, and publish or display, a privacy protection policy.

401 (d) No person needing to identify a resident of the Commonwealth may use that 402 individual's social security number. That person may, however, assign to that individual some 403 distinguishing number or mark. This number or mark shall not be the individual's social security
404 number, and shall not contain any sequence of digits from the individual's social security 405 number.

406 (e) This section does not prevent the collection, use or release of a social security
407 number as required by state or federal law. This section does not apply to records that are by 408 statute or case law required to be made available to the public.

409 (f) Any waiver of the provisions of this section is contrary to public policy, and is void
410 and unenforceable.

411 (g) Violations of any provision of this section shall constitute an unfair and deceptive
412 trade practice under the provisions of chapter 93A.

413 Section 2B. (a) Every person who manufactures, produces, sells, offers, or transfers to 414 another any deceptive identification document knowing such document to be false or counterfeit 415 and with the intent to deceive, is guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be 416 punished by imprisonment in the county jail not to exceed 1 year.

417 (b) Every person who offers, displays, or has in his or her possession any deceptive
418 identification document, or any genuine certificate of birth which describes a person then living
419 or deceased, with intent to represent himself or herself as another or to conceal his or her true 420 identity, is guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by 421 imprisonment in the county jail not to exceed 1 year.

422 (c) Any person who possesses a document-making device with the intent that the device 423 will be used to manufacture, alter, or authenticate a deceptive identification document is guilty of 424 a misdemeanor punishable by imprisonment in a county jail not exceeding one year, or by a fine 425 not exceeding $1000, or both.

426 (d) The attorney general, or any district attorney, may prosecute violators.

427 SECTION 13. Chapter 93 of the General Laws is hereby amended by inserting after 428 section 49A the following section:-

429 Section 49B. (a) As used in this section, the following words shall have the following
430 meanings:-

431 “Debtor”, a natural person who owes money, property or services to a creditor.

432 “Creditor”, person, organization, company, or government that has provided some 433 property or service to another party with the understanding that the second party will repay the 434 debt at a later date, or an attorney or an assignee of such person, or a person or agency contracted 435 to collect said debt.

436 “Identity theft affidavit”, Federal Trade Commission’s Affidavit of Identity Theft.

437 “Identity theft passport”, a card or certificate issued by the attorney general that verifies
438 the identity of the person who is a victim of identity theft or identity fraud.

439 (b) No one who is a creditor of a natural person present or residing in Massachusetts shall 440 engage in collection activities after receipt from the debtor of the following:

441 (1) a copy of a valid identity theft report filed by the debtor alleging that the debtor is the 442 victim of an identity theft crime, including, but not limited to, a violation of section 37E of 443 chapter 266, for the specific debt being collected by the creditor; and

444 (2) the debtor's written statement that the debtor claims to be the victim of identity theft 445 with respect to the specific debt being collected by the creditor. This written statement shall 446 consist of either of the following:

447 (i) a signed Identity Theft affidavit;

448 (ii) an identity theft passport, as described under subsection (k) or section 37E of chapter 449 266; or

450 (iii) a written statement that certifies that the representations are true, correct, and contain 451 no material omissions of fact to the best knowledge and belief of the person submitting the 452 certification. A person submitting such certification who declares as true any material matter
453 under this paragraph that he or she knows to be false is guilty of a misdemeanor. This statement 454 shall contain, or be accompanied by, any of the following, to the extent that such items are 455 relevant to the debtor's allegation of identity theft with respect to the debt in question:

456 (A) a statement that the debtor is a victim of identity theft;

457 (B) a copy of the debtor's driver's license or identification card, as issued by the state;

458 (C) any other identification document that supports the statement of identity theft;

459 (D) specific facts supporting the claim of identity theft, if available;

460 (E) any explanation showing that the debtor did not incur the debt;

461 (F) any available correspondence disputing the debt after transaction information has 462 been provided to the debtor;

463 (G) documentation of the residence of the debtor at the time of the alleged debt. This 464 may include copies of bills and statements, such as utility bills, tax statements, or other 465 statements from businesses sent to the debtor, showing that the debtor lived at another residence
466 at the time the debt was incurred;

467 (H) a telephone number for contacting the debtor concerning any additional information 468 or questions, or direction that further communications to the debtor be in writing only, with the 469 mailing address specified in the statement;

470 (I) the identification of any person whom the debtor believes is responsible for incurring 471 the debt;

472 (J) an express statement that the debtor did not authorize the use of the debtor's name or 473 personal information for incurring the debt.

474 (c) The creditor receiving the materials listed in subparagraph (iii) of paragraph (2) of 475 subsection (e) shall not release the materials to the public or any other entity.

476 (d) The certification required under subparagraph (iii) of paragraph (2) of subsection (e)
477 shall be sufficient if it is in substantially the following form:

478 "I certify the representations made are true, correct, and contain no material omissions of 479 fact. _____."

480 (Date and Place) (Signature)

481 (e) If a debtor notifies a creditor orally that he or she is a victim of identity theft, the 482 creditor shall notify the debtor, orally or in writing, that the debtor's claim must be in writing. If a 483 debtor notifies a creditor in writing that he or she is a victim of identity theft, but omits 484 information required under subsection (e) or, if applicable, the certification required under 485 subparagraph (iii) of paragraph (2) of subsection (e), and the creditor does not cease collection 486 activities, the creditor shall provide written notice to the debtor of the additional information, or 487 the certification required under subparagraph (iii) of paragraph (2) of subsection (e), that is 488 required, and send the debtor a copy of the Federal Trade Commission's Affidavit of Identity
489 Theft form.

490 (f) Upon receipt of the complete statement and information described in subsection (e) of 491 this section, the creditor shall review and consider all of the information provided by the debtor
492 and other information relevant to the review. The creditor may recommence debt collection 493 activities only upon making a good faith determination, based on all of the information provided 494 by the debtor and other information available to the creditor in its file or from the debtor, that the 495 information does not establish that the debtor is not responsible for the specific debt in question.
496 The creditor's determination shall be made in a manner consistent with the provisions of 15
497 U.S.C.1692f (1). The creditor shall notify the debtor in writing of that determination and the 498 basis for that determination before proceeding with any further collection activities.

499 (g) No inference or presumption that the debt is valid or invalid, or that the debtor is 500 liable or not liable for the debt, shall arise if the creditor decides after the review described in 501 subsection (h) of this section to cease or recommence the debt collection activities. The exercise 502 or non-exercise of rights under this section is not a waiver of any other right or defense of the 503 debtor or creditor or debt collector.

504 (h) A creditor who ceases collection activities under this section and does not 505 recommence those collection activities, shall within 5 business days of the cessation of collection 506 activities, do the following:

507 (1) if the creditor has furnished adverse information to a consumer credit reporting 508 agency, notify the agency to delete that information; and

509 (2) notify the creditor that debt collection activities have been terminated based upon the 510 debtor's claim of identity theft.

511 (i) Failure to comply with the provisions of this section shall constitute an unfair or 512 deceptive act or practice under the provisions of chapter 93A.

513 SECTION 14. Section 50 of chapter 93 of the General Laws is hereby amended by 514 inserting after the definition "Firm offer of credit" the following definition:-

515 "Identity theft passport", a card or certificate issued by the attorney general that verifies
516 the identity of the person who is a victim of identity theft or identity fraud.

517 SECTION 15. Section 59 of chapter 93 of the General Laws is hereby amended by 518 adding the following subsections:-

519 (f) Every consumer credit reporting agency shall, upon the receipt of an identity theft
520 passport, or identity theft report, from a victim of identity theft, provide the victim, free of charge
521 and upon request, with up to 12 copies of the victim's consumer report during a consecutive 12-
522 month period following the date of the police report, not to exceed 1 copy per month.
523 Notwithstanding any other provision of this title, the maximum number of free reports a victim 524 of identity theft is entitled to obtain under this title is 12 per year.

525 (g) The office of consumer affairs and business regulations shall adopt regulations to 526 carry out the provisions of this section. The regulations must include a procedure by which the 527 consumer reporting agency is reasonably assured that the identity theft victim has an identity
528 fraud claim that is legitimate and adequately substantiated.

529 SECTION 16. Section 62 of chapter 93 of the General Laws is hereby amended by
530 adding after subsectio

531 (c) the following subsections:-

532 (d) No entity that extends credit may deny credit, reduce the credit limit, or raise the cost
533 of credit of a consumer, solely because such consumer is a victim of identity theft, if the person
534 denying, reducing, or raising the cost of, the credit has prior knowledge that the consumer was a 535 victim of identity theft.

536 (e) Actions taken by a creditor to assist a consumer regarding his or her credit report, 537 credit score or credit history or to limit credit or financial losses to the consumer, including the 538 cancellation, monitoring or restructuring of consumer credit accounts, shall not be considered 539 violations of this section.

540 (f) For purposes of this section, a person is the victim of identity theft, as described under 541 section 37E of chapter 266, if he or she possesses a valid identity theft passport, or identity theft 542 report alleging that he or she is the victim of an identity theft crime, including, but not limited to, 543 a violation of section 37E of chapter 266.

544 SECTION 17. The General Laws are hereby amended by inserting after chapter 258E the 545 following chapter:-

546 CHAPTER 258F.

547 RELIEF FOR IDENTITY THEFT VICTIMS

548 Section 1. As used in this chapter the following words shall have the following
549 meanings:-

550 “Direct victim” or “Victim of identity theft”, any person or entity whose identity has been 551 transferred, used, or possessed in violation of section 37E of chapter 266.

552 “Identity theft” “identity fraud”, whoever, with intent to defraud, obtains personal
553 identifying information about another person, or poses as another person, without the express
554 authorization of that person and uses such person’s personal identifying information to obtain or 555 to attempt to obtain money, credit, goods, services, anything of value, any identification card or 556 other evidence of such person’s identity, or to harass another.

557 “Identity theft affidavit”, Federal Trade Commission’s Affidavit of Identity Theft.

558 “Identity theft report”, a report that alleges a violation of section 37E of chapter 266 of 559 the general laws, 18 United Commonwealths Code, section 1028, or a similar statute in any other 560 jurisdiction, or a copy of a report filed by a consumer with an appropriate federal, state or local 561 law enforcement agency, and the filing of which subjects the person filing the report to criminal 562 penalties pursuant to section 67B of chapter 266 or section 13A of chapter 269.

563 “Person”, natural person.

564 Section 2. (a) A person who reasonably believes that he or she is the victim of identity 565 theft, and that another individual has provided law enforcement or the judicial system with the 566 person’s name after being arrested or indicted for committing a crime, may receive copies of the 567 following, if applicable:

568 (1) the arrest warrant;

- 569 (2) the complaint
- 570 (3) the indictment; and
- 571 (4) the judgment of conviction.

572 (b) A person who reasonably believes that he or she is the victim of identity theft may 573 petition a court, or the court, on its own motion or upon application of the prosecuting attorney, 574 may move, for an expedited judicial determination of the person's factual innocence, where the 575 perpetrator of the identity theft was arrested for, cited for, or convicted of a crime under the 576 victim's identity, or where a criminal complaint has been filed against the perpetrator in the 577 victim's name, or where the victim's identity has been mistakenly associated with a record of 578 criminal conviction.

579 (1) The petitioner shall state:

- 580 (i) the petitioner's full name;
- 581 (ii) the petitioner's date of birth;
- 582 (iii) the petitioner's address;
- 583 (iv) the specific criminal charge to be expunged;
- 584 (v) the date of the arrest;
- 585 (vi) the name of the arresting agency
- 586 (vii) the date of final disposition of the charge as set forth in the petition; and
- 587 (viii) the full name used by the thief at the time of arrest.

588 (2) The petitioner shall submit the following, if reasonably available:

- 589 (i) the identity theft report;
- 590 (ii) the identity theft passport;
- 591 (iii) the identity theft affidavit;
- 592 (iv) a copy of the complaint;
- 593 (v) a copy of the warrant;
- 594 (vi) a copy of the indictment;
- 595 (vii) the judgment of conviction; and

596 (viii) any other information ordered to be part of the record by the court.

597 (3) Where this information is not reasonably available, the petition shall state the reason 598 for such unavailability.

599 (4) Where the court determines that the petition or motion is meritorious and that there is 600 no reasonable cause to believe that the victim committed the offense for which the perpetrator of 601 the identity theft was arrested, cited, convicted, or subject to a criminal complaint in the victim's 602 name, or that the victim's identity has been mistakenly associated with a record of criminal 603 conviction, the court shall find the victim factually innocent of that offense.

604 (5) If the victim is found factually innocent, the court shall issue an order certifying this 605 determination. This order shall require expungement of the police and court records relating to 606 the charge, and shall contain a statement that the dismissal and expungement are ordered 607 pursuant to this subsection.

608 (6) Upon the entry of an order for expungement, the clerk of the court shall cause a copy
609 of such order to be forwarded to the department of state police criminal information section. The 610 department of state police shall direct the manner by which the appropriate expungement or 611 removal of police records shall be effected.

612 (c) The attorney general shall provide access to identity theft information to:(1) law 613 enforcement agencies; and

614 (2) individuals who have submitted a petition for court order under chapter 258F.
