25 2. The registry shall be updated based on information made available to the Department 26 of Criminal Justice Information Services, including information acquired pursuant to the 27 registration provisions of section 3.

28 3. The registry shall include the following information: the offender’s name, the 29 offender’s residential address, the date and a description of the crime for which registration is

73 register under Section 3, may appeal to District Court for a determination of the level of danger 74 posed by the offender. The department may, upon making specific written findings that the 75 circumstances of the offense, in conjunction with the offender's criminal history, do not indicate
