The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand Thirteen

An Act relative to fair retainage payments in private construction.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Chapter 149 of the General Laws is hereby amended by inserting after 2 section 29E the following section:

3 Section 29F: (a) As used in this section the following word(s) shall have the following 4 meanings, unless the context clearly requires otherwise:

5 "Contract for construction", a contract for which a lien may be established under sections 6 2 or 4 of chapter 254 on a project for which the person whose contract with the project owner has 7 an original contract price of $3,000,000 or more; provided, however, this shall not include 8 projects containing or designed to contain at least 1 but not more than 4 dwelling units.

9 "Claim", an allegation that the party seeking payment of retainage breached its contract 10 for construction for the project.

11 "Incomplete or defective work", items required for full performance of the contract for 12 construction which remain to be performed or which have been performed but require repair or 13 replacement. Incomplete or defective work shall not include items to be repaired or replaced 14 pursuant to a warranty or guarantee.

15 "Retainage", a portion of a payment due pursuant to a contract for construction that is 16 withheld to ensure full performance of such contract for construction.

17 "Substantial completion", the stage in the progress of the project when the work required 18 by the contract for construction with the project owner is sufficiently complete in accordance 19 with the contract for construction so that the project owner can occupy or utilize such work for 20 its intended use. Substantial completion may apply to the entire project, or a phase of the entire 21 project if the contract for construction with the project owner provides for phased completion.

22 (b) Every contract for construction which provides for retainage shall also provide that 23 retainage shall not exceed 5% of each progress payment.

24 (c) Every contract for construction which provides for retainage shall provide a 25 reasonable time period within which all retainage shall be paid. Except as provided in paragraph 26 (d) and (e) of this section, and subject to subsection (e) of section 29E of chapter 149, the time 27 period for payment of all retainage shall not exceed 30 days after substantial completion; 28 provided, however, that the time period for payment of retainage by the person at each tier of 29 contract below the owner of the project may be extended by 7 days more than the time period 30 applicable to the person at the tier of contract above such person.

31 (d) Any amount withheld from the payment of retainage for incomplete or defective 32 work items shall not exceed the estimated cost to complete or correct the items under the contract
33 for construction, and shall be pursuant to a writing which describes the incomplete or defective 34 work items and the value attributable to each item, and which is certified as made in good faith.
35 Subject to subsection (e) of section 29E of chapter 149, the time period for payment of the 36 amount attributable to each incomplete or defective work item shall not exceed 30 days 37 following a written application for payment submitted after the item has been completed or 38 corrected.

39 (e) Any amount withheld from the payment of retainage for a claim shall not exceed the 40 estimated value of the claim for which the person seeking payment has received prior written 41 notice, and shall be pursuant to writing which describes the factual and contractual basis for the 42 claim, and which is certified as made in good faith. Any amount withheld from the payment of 43 retainage for a claim under this paragraph (e) shall be paid forthwith upon resolution of the 44 claim, which shall be subject to the applicable dispute resolution procedure.

45 (f) A communication required in this section to be in writing may be submitted in 46 electronic form and by electronic means.

47 (g) A provision in a contract for construction which purports to waive or limit any 48 provisions of this section shall be void and unenforceable.
