SENATE No. 896

By Mr. Tarr, a petition (accompanied by bill, Senate, No. 896) of Bruce E. Tarr and Leonard Mirra for legislation to provide for increased transparency in the prevailing wage. Labor and Workforce Development.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand Thirteen

An Act providing for increased transparency in the prevailing wage.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. There is hereby established a Prevailing Wage Commission, the purpose of 2 which shall be to determine the effectiveness, practicality and usefulness in establishing fair
3 wage rates of Massachusetts Prevailing Wage Law, so-called, as contained in Chapters 149, 5, 4 71, and 121B of the general laws. In making such determinations the commission shall consider,
5 at a minimum, whether the provisions of the current law result in wage rates which accurately 6 reflect the actual market wage rates in the specific categories and geographic areas to which they 7 apply, and whether other methodologies, including but not limited to those employed by the 8 federal government.

9 SECTION 2. The Department of Labor Standards within the Executive Office of 10 Labor and Workforce Development is hereby authorized and directed to provide information on 11 its website that details the current prevailing wage rates, the methodology by which the rates are 12 determines, and any actions that have been taken within the last twelve months to modify one or 13 more rates.

14 SECTION 3. The Department of Labor Standards within the Executive Office of 15 Labor and Workforce Development shall conduct at least one public hearing per year on issues 16 relating to the prevailing wage law, notice of which shall be promulgated as extensively as 17 possible, and specifically provided to the municipalities and other political subdivisions of the 18 commonwealth, and to the extent possible, organizations representing employers engaged in 19 public projects and organizations representing organized labor in the commonwealth.
