The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Eighty-Ninth General Court (2015-2016)

An Act to improve public safety by facilitating access to addiction services.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Chapter 126 of the General Laws is hereby amended by inserting, after
2 section 27, the following new section:

3 Section 28. Substance Abuse Services.

4 The sheriff shall ensure that each person admitted to a county correctional facility,
5 including a house of correction or jail, shall be evaluated to identify his or her substance abuse
6 history, and that each person with such a history is provided with addiction services upon
7 request. The sheriff may make such treatment available by directly engaging qualified 8 providers of substance abuse services, through collaboration with other agencies, and by 9 utilizing volunteers from community recovery programs.

10 SECTION 2. Chapter 127 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2000 Official
11 Edition, is hereby amended by inserting, after section 17, the following new section:

12 Section 17A. Substance Abuse Services.

13 The Commissioner shall ensure that each person admitted to a state correctional 14 facility is evaluated to identify his or her substance abuse history, and that each person with 15 such a history is provided with addiction services upon request. The commissioner may make 16 such treatment available by directly engaging qualified providers of substance abuse services,
17 through collaboration with other agencies, and by utilizing volunteers from community recovery
18 programs.
