The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Eighty-Ninth General Court (2015-2016)

An Act relative to exclusive probate court jurisdiction regarding abuse prevention orders affecting minors.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Section 2 of chapter 209A of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2012
2 Official Edition, is hereby amended by inserting after the word “residence”, in line 4, the 3 following words:- ; provided, however, that in any proceeding under this chapter, if the person
4 suffering from abuse resides in a household containing a household member who is a minor 5 child, the probate and family court having venue over the plaintiff’s residence shall have 6 exclusive jurisdiction to hear the proceeding; provided, further, that exclusive jurisdiction shall 7 not apply if the plaintiff has alleged a substantial likelihood of immediate danger of abuse.

8 SECTION 2. Section 4 of said chapter 209A, as so appearing, is hereby amended by 9 inserting after the word “three”, in line 3, the following words:- ; provided, however, that in any

10 proceeding under this chapter, if the person suffering from abuse resides in a household 11 containing a household member who is a minor child, the probate and family court having venue 12 over the plaintiff's residence shall have exclusive jurisdiction to hear the proceeding; provided, 13 further, that exclusive jurisdiction shall not apply if the plaintiff has alleged a substantial 14 likelihood of immediate danger of abuse.
