HOUSE . . . . . No. 1359

By Mrs. Harrington of Groton, a petition (accompanied by bill, House, No. 1359) of Sheila C. Harrington and others relative to amending spousal support payments by wage assignment and account garnishment. The Judiciary.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Eighty-Ninth General Court
(2015-2016)

An Act amending spousal support payments.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

SECTION 35A. Chapter 208 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2012 Official Edition, is hereby amended by inserting after section 35, the following new section:—

After a hearing had upon its own motion, or at the time a support order is issued or modified or as a result of a complaint for contempt due to failure of spousal support payments, and upon a particular finding of reasonable necessity to assure timely and consistent payments, the court may make a finding that future spousal support payments may be made through wage assignment, account garnishment or other means available to the department of revenue.
