59 All responsible parties must register vacant, foreclosing or foreclosed residential 60 properties with Commissioner on forms provided by the Commissioner. All registrations must 61 provide the Commissioner with the name, local (within 20 miles of the Property) address, and 62 telephone number of the Responsible Party or their local agent who can be contacted in case of

65 registration must designate a local individual or local property management company responsible 66 for the security and maintenance of the property. This designation must state the individual or 67 company's name, phone number and local mailing address.

68 This registration must be received within thirty days of the property becoming vacant, 69 foreclosing or foreclosed.

70 All property registrations are valid for one year. An annual registration fee to be set by 74 and must certify whether the foreclosed property remains vacant.

75 Once the property is sold or is no longer vacant, the responsible party must provide proof
76 of sale or written notice of occupancy to the Commissioner.

77 (c) Properties subject to this section must be maintained in accordance with all applicable
78 Sanitary, Building Codes, and local regulations and the following requirements.

87 of process. This sign must be posted on the front of the property so it is clearly visible from the 88 street.

89 If the Commissioner determines that a Property has been abandoned but Occupants 90 remain, and conditions of disrepair threaten the health and safety of the occupants: the 91 Commissioner shall notify the Responsible Party of the conditions of disrepair in writing. The 92 Responsible Party will then have fifteen (15) days to comply with the requirements set forth in 93 this Section.

94 The Commissioner, upon being informed of the existence of a Vacant, Foreclosing or 95 Foreclosed Property without a Certificate of Compliance, shall cause notice to issue to the

96 Responsible Party of the status of said Property and shall order said Responsible Party to 97 immediately obtain a Certificate of Compliance. If any Responsible Party fails to comply with 98 said order, Commissioner or agents thereof may enter the Property to inspect, and further may 99 seek court orders to enter upon the premises to secure, clean and remove any pools of stagnant
100 water and otherwise enforce the Sanitary Code.

101 Compliance with this section shall not relieve the responsible party of any other 102 obligation set forth in statute, regulation, covenant conditions and restrictions and/or 103 homeowners' association rules and regulations.

104 Maintenance of Vacant Properties. In addition to the requirements of This Section, the 105 Responsible Party, within fifteen (15) days of the property becoming vacant, shall:

115 (4) Maintain the Property in accordance with this section, free of overgrowth, trash 116 and debris, and pools of stagnant water, and ensure that structures are maintained in a 117 structurally sound condition; and

119 the Property, and elsewhere as the Commissioner may require, at or above the second floor level
120 and shall not be placed over doors, windows, or other openings. All signs/markings shall be 121 visible from the street and, when requested by the Commissioner, shall be placed on the sides
122 and rear of the Property. Signs/Markings shall be a minimum of 24 inches by 24 inches, with 123 lines of two-inch width, and shall have a reflective background, or be painted with reflective 124 paint, in contrasting colors. Signs/Markings shall be applied directly on the surface of the 125 Property and shall state the date of posting and the most recent date of inspection by the 126 Commissioner.

127 The Commissioner shall have the authority and the duty to inspect properties subject to 128 this section for compliance and to issue citations for any violations. The Commissioner shall 129 have the discretion to determine when and how such inspections are to be made, provided that 130 their policies are reasonably calculated to ensure the enforcement of this section.

131 The Responsible Party of a Vacant, Foreclosing or Foreclosed Property who fails to 132 obtain a Certificate of Compliance as required herein, shall be liable to the City or Town for 133 expenses incurred by the City or Town in securing such Property, and for costs of bringing the 134 property in compliance with this section. The Commissioner shall provide the Responsible Party 135 with a written statement of all costs associated with inspecting, securing and marking the 136 Property, and for costs of bringing the property in compliance with this section. The

137 Commissioner shall record the notice of claim in the appropriate Country Registry of Deeds
138 forthwith, and shall have the right to file a civil action in the Housing Court or District Court
139 with jurisdiction to establish a lien on the Property for the balance due.

140 No Responsible Party for a Vacant, Foreclosing, Foreclosed Property shall allow said
141 Property to become or remain unsecured, or to contain an accumulation of rubbish, or to contain 142 overgrowth, or to have a stagnant pool of water or otherwise not maintain the property in 143 accordance with the Sanitary Code. If it appears that any vacant or foreclosing Property is 144 unsecured, contains rubbish, overgrowth, or a stagnant pool of water, the Commissioner shall 145 send written notification to the Responsible Party, requiring that the Responsible Party promptly
146 secure the Property, remove the rubbish or overgrowth, or abate the stagnant pool of water or 147 other non-compliance with the Sanitary Code.

148 All unsecured Vacant, Foreclosing or Foreclosed Properties shall be immediately referred 149 to the Commissioner for a determination relative to whether the Property is a nuisance or 150 dangerous pursuant to M.G.L. c. 139 and procedures promulgated thereunder.

151 Notices required pursuant to this section shall be served in one of the following manners:

152 (1) Personally on any Responsible Party, or on the contact person specified by such 153 Responsible Party pursuant to this Section; or

154 (2) Left at the last and usual place of abode of any Responsible Party who is an 155 individual; or

156 (3) Sent by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested, to the principal place
157 of business within or without the Commonwealth of any Responsible Party who is an entity, if 158 such principal place of business is known; or,

160 or

162 specified by the Responsible Party pursuant to This Section, at the address specified by the 163 Responsible Party pursuant to This Section.

164 Enforcement: violations and penalties. Failure to comply with any provision of this 165 Section shall be punished by a fine of $300 pursuant to M.G.L. c. 40 § 21D, with each day of 166 violation constituting a separate offense.

167 This Section may also be enforced by civil, criminal process or non-criminal process,
168 including injunctive relief. The Commissioner shall be the enforcing person for purposes of this 169 section.

170 Violations of this chapter shall be treated as a strict liability offence regardless of intent.

181 second calendar month following such acceptance.

183 vacant, foreclosing and foreclosed property refundable cash bond as provided in section (d) of 184 this chapter.

185 Responsible Parties shall provide a refundable cash bond acceptable to the Commissioner 186 to be set by the municipality, in the sum of not to exceed ten thousand ($10,000) dollars, to 187 secure the continued maintenance of the Property until it is no longer vacant, foreclosed or 188 foreclosing and remunerate the City or town for any expenses incurred in inspecting, securing,
189 marking or making safe such Property and, if applicable, the Property in which it is located.

200 pursuant to This Section herein and shall enter upon the premises and cause the Property to be 201 inspected, secured and marked, and further may seek court orders to enter upon the premises to
