The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Eighty-Ninth General Court (2015-2016)

An Act relative to agricultural crop and property destruction.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Chapter 242 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2000 Official 2 Edition, is hereby amended by inserting after section 7A thereof the following new 3 section:Section 7B. Field crop product and agricultural property destruction.(a) Any person who,
4 without permission of the owner, willfully and intentionally removes, damages, or destroys a 5 field crop product and agricultural property situated on the land of another shall be liable to the 6 owner of such product in tort.(b) A party recovering judgment under this section shall be entitled 7 to an award of damages in an amount up to, but not greater than, three times the amount assessed 8 for the removal, damage or destruction of the farm crop product and agricultural property, plus 9 attorney fees and litigation costs. In assessing damages under this subsection, the courts shall 10 consider the market value of the field crop product and agricultural property prior to its removal,

11 damage or destruction, and all costs directly related to the production, research, testing,
12 replacement and development of the field crop product and agricultural property.(c) Damages 13 awarded under this section shall not limit remedies available under chapter 266 or under any 14 other applicable local, state or federal laws.(d) Liability under this section shall not apply to any 15 federal, state or local government agency, including the department of agricultural resources, or 16 to any employee of any such agency acting in the course of their employment.(e) For purposes of 17 this section, a “field crop product” shall mean any product of the soil that is grown in the context 18 of a research or product development program in conjunction or coordination with a private 19 research facility or a university or any federal, state or local governmental agency or any crop
20 produced for commercial purposes on an agricultural operation as defined by M.G.L. chapter 21 128 Section 1A.

22 (f) For purposes of this section, an “agricultural property” shall mean any implement of 23 husbandry, structure used for the conveyance of water, or structure used in the production, 24 growing, processing of field crop products or keeping and raising of livestock.
