An Act establishing the Massachusetts pregnant workers fairness act.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1           SECTION 1. Section 4 of chapter 151B of the General Laws is hereby amended by 2 striking out, in line 5, the word “or” and inserting, in line 6, after the words “ancestry of any 3 individual”, the following words:-

4           or pregnancy, childbirth, or a related condition, including, but not limited to, the need to 5 express breast milk for a nursing child.

6           SECTION 2. Said section 4 is hereby amended by inserting after subsection 1D the 7 following subsection:-

8           1E. (a) For an employer to deny reasonable accommodations for any condition of a job 9 applicant or employee related to pregnancy, childbirth, or related conditions if the employee or 10 applicant so requests, unless the employer can demonstrate that the accommodation would

11 impose an undue hardship on the employer's program, enterprise, or business. It shall also be an 12 unlawful practice under this subsection to:

13 (1) take adverse action against an employee who requests or uses an accommodation in 14 terms, conditions or privileges of employment, including, but not limited to, failing to reinstate 15 the employee to her original job or to an equivalent position with equivalent pay and 16 accumulated seniority, retirement, fringe benefits and other applicable service credits when her 17 need for reasonable accommodations ceases;

18 (2) deny employment opportunities to a job applicant or employee, if such denial is based 19 on the need of the employer to make reasonable accommodations to the known conditions 20 related to the pregnancy, childbirth, or related conditions of the applicant or employee;

21 (3) require a job applicant or employee affected by pregnancy, childbirth, or related 22 conditions to accept an accommodation that such applicant or employee chooses not to accept;

23 (4) require an employee to take leave if another reasonable accommodation can be 24 provided to the known conditions related to the pregnancy, childbirth, or related conditions of an 25 employee without undue hardship to the employer;

26 (5) make pre-employment inquiry of any condition of a job applicant related to 27 pregnancy, childbirth, or a related condition.

28 (b) For the purposes of this subsection:

29 (1) The term "reasonable accommodations" shall include, but not be limited to: more 30 frequent or longer breaks, time off to recover from childbirth, acquisition or modification of 31 equipment, seating, temporary transfer to a less strenuous or hazardous position, job

32 restructuring, light duty, break time and private non-bathroom space for expressing breast milk, 33 assistance with manual labor, or modified work schedules; provided, that no employer shall be 34 required by this subsection to create additional employment that the employer would not 35 otherwise have created, unless the employer does so or would do so for other classes of 36 employees who need accommodation, nor shall the employer be required to discharge any 37 employee, transfer any employee with more seniority, or promote any employee who is not 38 qualified to perform the job, unless the employer does so or would do so to accommodate other 39 classes of employees who need it.

40 (2) The term “related conditions” shall include, but not be limited to, lactation or the need 41 to express breast milk for a nursing child.

42 (3) The term “undue hardship”, shall mean an action requiring significant difficulty or 43 expense. The employer shall have the burden of proving undue hardship. In making a 44 determination of undue hardship, factors to be considered include:

45 (i) the nature and cost of the accommodation;

46 (ii) the overall financial resources of the employer; the overall size of the business of the 47 employer with respect to the number of employees, and the number, type, and location of its 48 facilities;

49 (iii) the effect on expenses and resources or the impact otherwise of such accommodation 50 upon the operation of the employer.

51 (c) The fact that the employer provides or would be required to provide a similar 52 accommodation to other classes of employees who need it shall create a rebuttable presumption 53 that the accommodation does not impose an undue hardship on the employer.

54

55 (d) The employer shall engage in a timely, good faith, and interactive process with the 56 employee to determine effective reasonable accommodations.

57 (e) Written notice of the right to be free from discrimination in relation to pregnancy, 58 childbirth, and related conditions, including the right to reasonable accommodations for 59 conditions related to pregnancy, childbirth, or related conditions, pursuant to this subsection 60 must be conspicuously posted at an employer's place of business in an area accessible to 61 employees. Such notice must also be provided to:

62 (1) new employees at the commencement of employment;

63 (2) existing employees within 120 days after the effective date of the law that added this 64 subsection;

65 (3) any employee who notifies the employer of her pregnancy within 10 days of such 66 notification.

67 (f) The commission shall develop courses of instruction and conduct ongoing public 68 education efforts as necessary to inform employers, employees, employment agencies, and job 69 applicants about their rights and responsibilities under this subsection.

70 (g) This subsection shall not be construed to preempt, limit, diminish or otherwise affect 71 any other provision of law relating to sex discrimination or pregnancy, or in any way to diminish

- 72 the coverage for pregnancy, childbirth, or a condition related to pregnancy or childbirth under
- 73 section 105D of chapter 149, or any other special or general law.
