In the One Hundred and Eighty-Ninth General Court (2015-2016)

An Act relative to retiree healthcare reform.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1           SECTION 1. Chapter 32A of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2012 Official 2 Edition, is hereby amended by adding the following section:

3           SECTION 28: (a) Notwithstanding any general or special law to the contrary, there shall 4 be a special commission to study the Massachusetts public employees’ retiree benefits system.
5 The commission shall review the feasibility of allowing municipalities to offer their retirees
6 individual policies funded by Health Reimbursement Arrangements (HRAs), and make 7 recommendations for reform. The commission shall consist of 13 members: 1 of whom shall be 8 the secretary of administration and finance, or the secretary’s designee; 1 of whom shall be the 9 treasurer, or the treasurer’s designee; 1 of whom shall be the executive director of the public
10 employee retirement administration commission, of the director’s designee; 1 of whom shall be a 11 private citizen, appointed by the governor, who shall serve as chair of the commission and shall 12 not be a member of the 105 contributory retirement systems; 3 members of the house of 13 representatives, 1 of whom shall be appointed by the minority leader; 3 of whom shall be 14 members of the senate, 1 of whom shall be appointed by the minority leader; 1 of whom shall be 15 selected by the governor from a list of 3 candidates submitted to the president of the 16 Massachusetts AFL-CIO; 1 of whom shall be a member of the Massachusetts municipal 17 association; and 1 of whom shall be a member of the retired state, county and municipal 18 employees association of Massachusetts.

19 (b) The public employee retirement administration commission shall conduct an actuarial 20 analysis to determine the costs of any recommendations made by the commission. The 21 commission shall file a report of its recommendations, together with the actuarial analysis and 22 proposed legislation, if any, with the clerks of the house and senate, the chairs of the house and 23 senate committee on ways and means and the chairs of the joint committee on public service no
24 later than April 20, 2016.
