Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Clause Twenty-sixth of section 7 of chapter 4 of the General Laws, as 2 appearing in the 2012 Official Edition, is hereby amended in line 139 after the word
3 “characteristics,” the following words:--^[L I L]_[S E P I S E P]“including public record information which may be

10 any person having custody of a public record shall ensure that such system or database is capable 11 of providing data in a common format such as, but not limited to, the American Standard Code
12 for Information Interchange or the Uniform Character Set Transformation Format. When records

13 maintained electronically include both public record information and exempt information that 14 may be withheld from public inspection, the custodian shall design its information storage and 15 retrieval methods in a manner that permits the segregation and retrieval of public record 16 information in order to provide maximum public access. No custodian of a public record may 17 enter into a contract for the storage of electronic records containing public record information
18 that impairs or restricts public access to those records.” [L L L L]

19 SECTION 4. Said Chapter 66 is hereby amended by inserting after section 6 the 20 following new section:-- [L L L L]“Section 6A. Every state agency, as defined in chapter 66A, shall 21 designate one or more employees as records access officers. Each agency shall publicize by 22 posting in a conspicuous location at its offices and in a conspicuous location on its website, if 23 any, the name, title, business address, business telephone number, and email address of the 24 designated records access officers. The designation of one or more records access officers shall 25 not be construed to prohibit employees who have in the past been authorized to make records or 26 information available to the public from continuing to do so. [L L L L]Records access officers shall 27 be responsible for coordinating such agency’s response to requests for access to records under 28 the provisions of this chapter, shall facilitate the informal resolution of requests by timely and 29 thorough production of records, and shall ensure that the agency: L L L L Assists requesters
30 seeking records to identify the records sought; L L L L Indicates, when responding to a request, 31 whether the records are available in electronic form and the manner in which the records are 32 stored, filed, retrieved or generated, to assist requesters in describing the records sought; L L L L
33 Contacts requesters when the response to a request would be voluminous so the agency may, at 34 the option of the requester, assist the requester in focusing the request in order to facilitate the 35 timely and thorough production of the records sought; [L L L L] (d) coordinates with the Supervisor

36 of Public Records and the Records Management Unit to ensure that public records are preserved
37 in accordance with relevant Massachusetts law, regulation, and administrative guidance, prepares 38 and maintains reference materials to enhance access to electronic public records in its custody 39 and enable requestors to make informed requests. These reference materials shall be updated at 40 least annually and shall include: ~~§§§§~~(i) a reasonably detailed list of categories of records 41 maintained by the agency, whether or not open for public inspection; ~~§§§§~~(ii) a list and 42 description of all major databases maintained by the agency; and ~~§§§§~~(iii) a record of all public 43 records requests received on or after January 1, 2015 and the responses to those requests, to the 44 extent that such responses may be preserved in electronic form. ~~§§§§~~Each state agency that 45 maintains a website shall post these reference materials on its website.” ~~§§§§~~

46 SECTION 5. Section 10 of said chapter 66 is hereby amended by striking subsections (a) 47 and (b) and inserting the following:--~~§§§§~~“(a) Every person having custody of any public record, 48 as defined in clause twenty-sixth of section seven of chapter four, shall, at reasonable times and 49 without unreasonable delay, permit it, or any segregable portion of a record which is an 50 independent public record, including public record information which may be separately 51 retrieved from an electronic record, to be inspected and examined by any person, under his 52 supervision, and shall furnish one copy thereof upon payment of a reasonable fee not to exceed 53 the actual cost of reproducing the record. In determining the actual cost of reproducing a record, 54 the custodian of the record may include only: (i) the actual cost of any storage devices or 55 materials provided to the requester in complying with such request; (ii) an amount equal to the 56 hourly salary attributed to the lowest paid employee who has the necessary skill required to 57 prepare a copy of the requested record, provided that no fee shall be charged unless at least two 58 hours of employee time is needed to prepare a copy of the record requested, and (iii) when the

59 custodian`s information technology capabilities are inadequate to prepare a copy of the record, 60 the custodian may charge the requestor the actual cost of engaging an outside service to prepare a
61 copy, provided that no fee shall be charged in excess of the hourly salary attributed to the lowest 62 paid state employee who has the necessary skill required to prepare such a copy. In no case shall 63 fees for black and white photocopies or computer printouts exceed 5 cents per letter size page or 64 smaller or 7 cents per legal size page. A page shall be defined as one side of a sheet of 65 paper.^{[[[REDACTED]]]}Each person having custody of a record shall inform the requester of the estimated 66 cost of preparing a copy of the record if more than two hours of an employee`s time is needed, or 67 if an outside professional service would be retained to prepare a copy of the record. No fee shall 68 be charged for review of the content of requested records to determine the extent to which 69 exempt and public information must be segregated.^{[[[REDACTED]]]}Records shall be furnished without any 70 charge or at a reduced charge if disclosure of the information is in the public interest because it is 71 likely to contribute significantly to public understanding of operations or activities of the 72 government and is not primarily in the commercial interest of the requester.^{[[[REDACTED]]]}(b) A custodian
73 of a public record shall, within fifteen days following receipt of a request for inspection or copy
74 of a public record, comply with such request. Such request may be delivered in hand to the office
75 of the custodian, mailed via first class mail, or sent by email. If the custodian refuses or fails to 76 comply with such a request, the person making the request may petition the supervisor of records
77 to compel the custodian to respond or for a determination whether the record requested is public.
78 Upon the determination by the supervisor of records that the record is public, he shall order the 79 custodian of the public record to comply with the person`s request. If the custodian refuses or 80 fails to comply with any such order, the supervisor of records shall notify the attorney general or 81 the appropriate district attorney thereof who shall take whatever measures necessary to insure

82 compliance with the provisions of this section, including enforcement of the penalties prescribed 83 under section 15. The administrative remedy provided by this section shall in no way limit the 84 availability of the administrative remedies provided by the commissioner of administration and 85 finance with respect to any officer or employee of any agency, executive office, department or 86 board; nor shall the administrative remedy provided by this section in any way limit the 87 availability of judicial remedies otherwise available to any person requesting a public record. If a 88 custodian of a public record refuses or fails to comply with the request of any person for 89 inspection or copy of a public record or with an administrative order under this section, the 90 supreme judicial or superior court shall have jurisdiction to order compliance. Proceedings 91 arising under this section shall take precedence on the docket over other civil cases and shall be 92 expedited. In any such proceeding, the court shall award reasonable attorney's fees to the party 93 seeking public records if that party has substantially prevailed. A judgment or settlement in 94 plaintiff's favor shall not be a prerequisite to obtaining an award of attorney's fees or costs..”

95 ~~SECTION 6.~~ SECTION 6. Said section 10 of chapter 66 is hereby further amended by inserting at 96 the end thereof the following paragraphs:--~~SECTION 6.~~“(e) If a public record or public record
97 information is available in electronic form, the custodian shall, at the option of the requester, 98 provide it in that form. In making a record available to a requestor, the custodian shall provide 99 the record in any format requested if the record is readily reproducible in that format. If a request 100 does not specify the format for producing electronically stored information, the custodian shall 101 provide the record information in a common format that is reasonably usable. For public records
102 in electronic form, a custodian may charge the requestor only the actual cost of any storage
103 devices or materials provided to the requestor. Any programming necessary to retrieve a public 104 record or public record information and provide the record or record information in the requested

105 format, or to allow the record or record information to be read or printed, shall not be deemed to 106 be the preparation or creation of a new record.^{[[LTTLL]]}_{[[SEPISEP]]}(f) Every state agency, as defined by Chapter 107 66A, that has the ability to provide public internet access, at no charge, to a public record in its 108 custody, shall make reasonable efforts to do so. A custodian state agency shall be required to 109 provide public internet access, at no charge, to the following types of public records in 110 searchable format: (i) final opinions, decisions, orders, or votes from agency proceedings; (ii)
111 annual reports; (iii) reports to the General Court; (iv) notices of regulations proposed under 112 chapter 30A; (v) notices of hearings; (vi) winning bids for public contracts; (vii) applications and 113 awards of federal, state, and municipal government grants; (viii) minutes of open meetings; (ix)
114 agency budgets; and (x) any public record information of significant interest to the general public 115 including, but not limited to, public record information which has been the subject of multiple 116 public records requests or which could reasonably be anticipated to be the subject of multiple 117 public records requests in the future.^{[[LTTLL]]}_{[[SEPISEP]]}(g) The secretary of each executive office shall, on or 118 before October 1, 2015, promulgate rules and regulations to carry out the purposes of this act 119 which shall be applicable to all agencies, departments, boards, commissions, authorities, and 120 instrumentalities within each of said executive offices subject to the approval of the secretary of 121 administration and finance, in consultation with the chief information officer of the 122 commonwealth. Any agency not within any such executive office shall be subject to the 123 regulations of the secretary of administration and finance. The attorney general, the state 124 secretary, the state treasurer and the state auditor shall adopt applicable regulations for their 125 respective departments on or before October 1, 2015.^{[[LTTLL]]}_{[[SEPISEP]]}

126 SECTION 7. Said section 15 of chapter 66 is hereby amended by striking the last 127 sentence and replacing it with the following:^{[[LTTLL]]}_{[[SEPISEP]]}“Any public officer who refuses or neglects

128 to perform any duty required of him by this chapter, including failure to comply with an order 129 from the supervisor of records made pursuant to paragraph (b) of section 10, shall for each day of 130 such neglect or refusal be punished by a fine of not more than $100.”
