The president of the senate and the speaker of the house of representatives may serve as legislative appointees.

(b) Legislative members shall serve 2-year terms, conterminous with their service as elected members of the legislature. If the president of the senate or the speaker of the house of representatives serves on the commission, the president or speaker’s service shall continue until resignation from the commission or until the individual ceases to hold the office.

221 written obligations. The governor shall designate an appropriate agency or authority that shall 222 continue to carry out all covenants contained in the bonds and in all other obligations, including

223 lease, contract and other written obligations, to complete the construction of projects or the 224 performance of other

225 obligations, including lease, contract and other written obligations. The designated 226 agency or authority shall provide payment from the sources of payment of the bond under the 229 from taxes, revenues or otherwise, until the bonds and interest on the

230 bonds are paid in full and all other obligations, including lease, contract and other written 231 obligations, are performed and paid in full. If the proceedings so provide, all funds established by 232 laws or proceedings authorizing the bonds or authorizing other obligations, including lease, 233 contract and other written obligations, shall remain with the comptroller or the previously 234 designated trustees. If the proceedings do not provide that the funds

235 remain with the comptroller or the previously designated trustees, the funds shall be 236 transferred to the designated agency or authority.

239 the purposes of the commission proceedings. The subpoena may be served on a witness at any 240 place in the commonwealth.

241 (b) If a majority of the commission directs the issuance of a subpoena, the 242 chairman shall issue the subpoena in the name of the commission.

(c) If the chairman is absent, the chairman's designee may issue a subpoena or other process in the same manner as the chairman.

(b) A record held by another entity that is considered to be confidential by law and that the commission receives in connection with the performance of the commission's functions

263 under this chapter or another law remains confidential and shall be exempt from the public 264 disclosure requirements of chapter 66.

265 Section 19. If an employee is displaced because an agency, authority or advisory 266 committee is abolished, reorganized or continued, the head of the agency, authority or advisory 267 committee and the personnel administrator of the commonwealth shall make a reasonable effort 268 to relocate the displaced employee. Except as otherwise expressly provided, abolition of an 269 agency, authority or advisory committee shall not affect the rights and duties that matured, 270 penalties that were incurred, civil or criminal liabilities that arose or proceedings that were begun 271 before the effective date of abolition.

272 Section 20. (a) Each bill filed in the legislature that would create a new agency, authority 273 or advisory committee to an agency shall be reviewed by the commission.

274 (b) The commission shall review the bill to determine whether:

275 (1) the proposed functions of the agency, authority or committee could be 276 administered by 1 or more existing agencies, authorities or advisory committees;

277 (2) the form of regulation, if any, proposed by the bill is the least 278 restrictive form of regulation that will adequately protect the public;

280 function proposed by the bill; and

281 (4) the bill provides for adequate protection against conflicts of interest

282 within the agency, authority or advisory committee.

283 (c) On request, the commission shall forward a written comment on the legislation to the 284 legislator who filed the bill and to the presiding officer of the legislative committee to which the 285 bill has been referred.

286 Section 21. (a) The commission may accept from any source any grant, donation, gift or 287 other form of conveyance of land, money, other real or personal property or other item of value 288 made to the commonwealth or the commission for carrying out the purpose of this chapter.
