HOUSE No. 3127

By Representative Atkins of Concord and Senator Eldridge, a joint petition (accompanied by bill, House, No. 3127) of Cory Atkins, James B. Eldridge and others for the adoption of resolutions memorializing the Congress of the United States to convene a Constitutional Convention to consider amendments to the Constitution to limit the influence of money in our political system. Veterans and Federal Affairs.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Eighty-Ninth General Court
(2015-2016)

An Act For a U.S. Constitutional Amendment and Amendments Convention.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 WHEREAS, the 1st President of the United States George Washington stated, "The basis
2 of our political systems is the right of the people to make and to alter their Constitutions of 3 Government." and,

4 WHEREAS, it was the stated intention of the framers of the Constitution of the United 5 States of America that the Congress of the United States of America should be "dependent on the 6 people alone." (James Madison, Federalist 52); and,

7 WHEREAS, that dependency has evolved from a dependency on the people alone to a 8 dependency on those who spend excessively in elections, through campaigns or third-party 9 groups; and,

11 WHEREAS, the United States Supreme Court ruling in Citizens United v. Federal 12 Election Commission, 558 U.S. 310 (2010) removed restrictions on amounts of independent 13 political spending; and,

14
15 WHEREAS, the removal of those restrictions has resulted in the unjust influence of 16 powerful economic forces, which have supplanted the will of the people by undermining our 17 ability to choose our political leadership, write our own laws, and determine the fate of our state; 18 and

19 WHEREAS, corporations are artificial entities that governments create and, as such, do 20 not possess the same unalienable rights of natural persons protected by the Constitution; and

21 WHEREAS, corporations have used a claim to the rights enumerated in the US
22 Constitution, including under the 1st, 4th, 5th and 14th Amendments, to challenge and overturn 23 democratically enacted laws protecting the public interest; and

24
25 WHEREAS Article V of the United States Constitution requires the United States
26 Congress to call a convention for proposing amendments upon application of two-thirds of the 27 legislatures of the several states for the purpose of proposing amendments to the United States 28 Constitution; and

29 WHEREAS the Commonwealth of Massachusetts sees the need for a convention to 30 propose amendments in order to address concerns about the integrity of our elections and about 31 the ability of the people to participate in effective self-government, specifically those concerns

32 arising from the United States Supreme Court's rulings limiting the ability of the legislature to 33 regulate the raising and spending of money in elections and granting constitutional rights to 34 corporations; and desires that said convention should be so limited; and

35 WHEREAS the Commonwealth of Massachusetts desires that the delegates to said 36 convention shall be comprised equally from individuals currently elected to state and local 37 office, or be selected by election in each Congressional district for the purpose of serving as 38 delegates, though all individuals elected or appointed to federal office, now or in the past, be 39 prohibited from serving as delegates to the Convention, and intends to retain the ability to restrict 40 or expand the power of its delegates within the limits expressed above; and

41 WHEREAS the Commonwealth of Massachusetts intends that this application shall 42 constitute a continuing application, considered together with applications on this subject such as 43 those passed by the State of Vermont (2013-2014 Vermont R454, Joint Resolution Senate No.
44 27, 160 Congressional Record S4331, POM-284), the State of California (2014 California
45 Resolution Chapter 77, Assembly Joint Resolution No. 1, 160 Congressional Record S5507, 46 POM-320), the State of Illinois (2014 Illinois Senate Joint Resolution No. 42), and proposed by 47 the State of Montana (2015 Montana HJ-3), and all other passed, pending, and future 48 applications, the aforementioned concerns of Massachusetts notwithstanding until such time as 49 two-thirds of the Several States have applied for a Convention and said Convention is convened 50 by Congress;

Therefore, BE IT RESOLVED by the Legislature of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts that it calls on Congress to propose an amendment to the Constitution that would affirm that

a) the rights protected by the Constitution of the United States are the rights of natural persons, i.e. human individuals, only and

b) Congress and the states shall place limits on political contributions and expenditures to ensure that all citizens have access to the political process, and the spending of money to influence elections is not protected free speech under the First Amendment; and

Be it further Resolved that if Congress does not propose this constitutional amendment within 6 months of the passage of this bill, then this bill constitutes a petition by the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, speaking through its legislature, and pursuant to Article V of the United States Constitution, to the Congress to call a Convention for the purpose of proposing Amendments to the Constitution of the United States of America as soon as two-thirds of the several States have applied for a Convention; and,

Be it further Resolved, that the Clerk of the Massachusetts House of Representatives and Clerk of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, the Minority Leader of the United States House of Representatives, the President Pro Tempore of the United States Senate, to each Senator and Representative from Massachusetts in the Congress of the United States, to the Governor of each State, and to the presiding officers of each legislative body of each of the several States, requesting the cooperation of the several States in issuing an

- 73 application compelling Congress to call a convention for proposing amendments pursuant to
- 74 Article V of the United States Constitution.
