In the One Hundred and Eighty-Ninth General Court (2015-2016)

An Act establishing an Eastern Regional Commission on the status of Women and girls.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1           (a) There shall be an Eastern Regional commission on the status of women which shall 2 consist of 9 persons to be appointed by the commission on the status of women established in 3 section 66 of chapter 3 of the General Laws. The Eastern Regional commission shall conduct an 4 ongoing study of all matters concerning women in Eastern Regional communities. The Eastern 5 Regional commission shall report its findings to the commission on the status of women 6 annually, not later than June 2, and shall recommend solutions to the problems facing women in 7 Eastern Regional communities. The commission on the status of women shall make 8 appointments to the Eastern Regional commission from a pool of applicants who reside in 9 Eastern Regional communities. For the purpose of this act, "Eastern Regional communities"
10 shall mean municipalities located within Norfolk and Suffolk county.

11           (b) Members shall serve for 3-year terms and shall continue in office until their 12 successors are appointed. Members shall not be reappointed for more than 2 consecutive terms;

13 provided, however, that former members may reapply to serve on the commission after 1 year 14 has passed since their last term. Of the initial members appointed to the Eastern Regional 15 commission on the status of women, 3 members shall be appointed for a term of 1 year, 3 16 members shall be appointed for a term of 2 years and 3 members shall be appointed for a term of 17 3 years.

18 (c) Vacancies in the membership of the Eastern Regional commission on the status of 19 women shall be filled by the commission on the status of women for the balance of the unexpired 20 term.

21 (d) In making appointments to the Eastern Regional commission on the status of women, 22 the commission on the status of women shall consult with women's organizations. Nominations 23 shall be solicited between August 1 and September 16 annually through an open application that 24 is widely distributed throughout the Eastern Regional communities. Members of the commission 25 shall be diverse and represent different Eastern Regional communities.

26 (e) Members shall serve on the Eastern Regional commission on the status of women as 27 volunteers and shall not be compensated.

28 (f) The Eastern Regional commission on the status of women shall elect from among its 29 members a chair, a vice chair, a treasurer and any other officers as it deems necessary.

30 (g) The Eastern Regional commission on the status of women shall meet at least 4 times
31 a year, at the members' discretion. Members of the commission on the status of women may 32 attend the meetings of the Eastern Regional commission on the status of women.

33           (h) The Eastern Regional commission on the status of women may accept and solicit 34 funds, including any gifts, donations, grants or bequests and federal funds for any of the purposes
35 of this act. The funds shall be deposited in a separate account to be expended at the discretion of 36 the commission.

37           (i) The Eastern Regional commission on the status of women may: (i) use voluntary and 38 uncompensated services of private individuals, agencies and organizations as may, from time to 39 time, be offered or required; (ii) recommend policies and make recommendations to state and 40 local agencies and officers to effectuate the purposes of the commission; (iii) enact by-laws for 41 its own governance; (iv) hold regular public meetings, conduct fact-finding hearings and hold 42 other public forums as it deems necessary; and (v) take other actions as it deems necessary to 43 effectuate its purposes.
