HOUSE No. 4523

By Mr. Kocot of Northampton, a petition (subject to Joint Rule 12) of Peter V. Kocot relative to fire sprinkler installation incentives. Revenue.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Eighty-Ninth General Court (2015-2016)

An Act relative to fire sprinkler installation incentives.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Chapter 59 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2014 Official Edition,
2 is hereby amended by adding the following section:—

3 Section 50. (a) In any city or town which accepts the provisions of this section, the board
4 of selectmen, in the case of a town, the town council, in the case of a municipality having a town
5 council form of government, the city council, in the case of a city having a Plan D or Plan E 6 charter, or the city council with the approval of the mayor, in the case of any other city, may 7 reduce the real property tax obligations for an owner of a two-family or multifamily residential 8 premises who pays for the installation of a fire protection sprinkler system, as defined in section 9 81 of chapter 146 and meeting minimum qualifications as required by the executive office of 10 public safety and security, in the amount equal to 30 per cent of the cost of installation, provided 11 that the owner is not otherwise required to install such system pursuant to federal law or sections 12 26A½, 26G, 26G½ or 26H of chapter 148.

13 (b) Reductions under this section shall be allowed for the taxable year in which system is 14 installed; provided, however, that a reduction allowed under this section shall not reduce the tax 15 owed below zero. A taxpayer allowed a reduction under this section for a taxable year may carry 16 over and apply against such taxpayer's tax liability in any of the succeeding 5 taxable years, the 17 portion, as reduced from year to year, of those reductions which exceed the tax for the taxable 18 year.

19 (c) Municipalities may abate any increase in the value of the property resulting from the 20 installation of the fire protection sprinkler system until such time as the property is conveyed.

21 SECTION 2. Section 6 of chapter 62 of the General Laws, as so appearing, is hereby 22 amended by adding the following subsection:—

23 (t)(1) Any owner of a two-family or multifamily residential premises who pays for the 24 installation of a fire protection sprinkler system, as defined in section 81 of chapter 146 and 25 meeting minimum qualifications as required by the executive office of public safety and security, 26 shall be allowed a credit against the tax liability imposed by this chapter in the amount equal to 27 30 per cent of the cost of installation, provided that the owner is not otherwise required to install 28 such system pursuant to federal law or sections 26A½, 26G, 26G½ or 26H of chapter 148.

29 (2) Credits under this subsection shall be allowed for the taxable year in which system is 30 installed; provided, however, that a tax credit allowed under this subsection shall not reduce the 31 tax owed below zero. A taxpayer allowed a credit under this subsection for a taxable year may 32 carry over and apply against such taxpayer's tax liability in any of the succeeding 5 taxable 33 years, the portion, as reduced from year to year, of those credits which exceed the tax for the 34 taxable year.

35 SECTION 3. Chapter 63 of the General Laws, as so appearing, is hereby amended by 36 adding the following section:—

37 Section 38GG. (a) Any owner of a two-family or multifamily residential premises who 38 pays for the installation of a fire protection sprinkler system, as defined in section 81 of chapter 39 146 and meeting minimum qualifications as required by the executive office of public safety and 40 security, shall be allowed a credit against the tax liability imposed by this chapter in the amount 41 equal to 30 per cent of the cost of installation, provided that the owner is not otherwise required
42 to install such system pursuant to federal law or sections 26A½, 26G, 26G½ or 26H of chapter 43 148.

44 (b) The credit allowed in this section for any taxable year shall not reduce the excise to 45 less than the amount due under subsection (b) of section 39, section 67 or any other applicable 46 section.

47 (c) Credits under this section shall be allowed for the taxable year in which system is 48 installed. A taxpayer allowed a credit under this section for a taxable year may carry over and 49 apply against the taxpayer's tax liability in any of the succeeding 5 taxable years, the portion, as 50 reduced from year to year, of those credits which exceed the tax for the taxable year.
