The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Eighty-Ninth General Court (2015-2016)

An Act relative to financial literacy in schools.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1	SECTION 1.	Chapter 69 of the	General Laws,	as appearing in the	ne 2012 Official Edition,

2 is hereby amended by inserting after section 10 the following section:-

3 Section 1P. To equip students with the knowledge and skills needed to become self-

4 supporting and to enable students to make critical decisions regarding personal finances, the

5 department of elementary and secondary education shall authorize and assist in the 6 implementation of standards and objectives on personal financial literacy. The components of

7 personal financial literacy covered in the standards and objectives shall include: understanding

8 loans; borrowing money; interest; credit card debt; online commerce; rights and responsibilities

9 of renting or buying a home; saving, investing and planning for retirement; banking and financial

10 services; balancing a checkbook; state and federal taxes; and charitable giving.

The department shall develop standards and objectives on personal financial literacy, for grades pre-kindergarten to 12, inclusive, within the existing mathematics, social sciences, 13 technology, business, or other curricula where teachers have the capacity to teach financial 14 literacy for implementation by the start of the 2016-2017 school year. The department shall make 15 available to school districts, charter schools, approved private day or residential schools, and 16 collaborative schools a list of resources to aid in the selection of materials and curriculum on 17 personal financial literacy. The department shall identify and offer information on cost effective 18 methods for fulfilling the professional development activities needed to implement said 19 standards and objectives. The department may consult with private, nonprofit, or other 20 government institutions in order to identify and offer said information. The department may 21 apply for any federal, state, or other funding, including funding available through the Financial 22 Literacy Trust Fund, as established by chapter 10, as amended by chapter 14 of the acts of 2011.

SECTION 2. Notwithstanding any general or special law to the contrary, the advisory committee established under section 200(b) of chapter 139 of the acts of 2012 shall also conduct a study on additional current programs on financial literacy being offered in the Commonwealth for grades pre-kindergarten to 12, inclusive, and the cost, to individual schools and school districts, of offering said programs. The advisory committee shall submit the results of this study to the clerks of the senate and the house who shall forward the same to the chairs of the joint committee on education on or before August 31, 2016.

In consultation with the department, the advisory committee shall also advise and oversee the development and implementation of standards and objectives on personal financial literacy. After the submission of the report regarding all financial literacy programs in the commonwealth, the advisory committee shall submit a report on best practices and recommended improvements annually thereafter for 3 subsequent years to the clerks of the senate and the house who shall forward the same to the chairs of the joint committee on

2 of 3

- 36 education on or before December 31. The advisory committee shall consult with individuals with
- 37 relevant experiences including representatives from insurance and investment firms, real estate
- 38 firms, and bankruptcy attorneys.
