15 resources” the following “and marine fisheries”.

16 SECTION 3. Section 2 of Chapter 128 of the general laws is hereby amended by 17 inserting after subsection (k) the following:

18 (l) Oversee the division of marine fisheries and all of its functions.

19 (m) Promote and develop marine fisheries resources of the commonwealth and improve 20 the conditions for fishermen, fish processors and other shoreside industries.

21 (n) Collect and disseminate data and statistics as to the marine fish and shellfish caught,
22 landed, harvested, marketed, stored or held within the commonwealth, with the quantities 23 available from time to time and the location thereof.

24 (o) Investigate and aid improved methods of co-operative production, marketing and 25 distribution of marine fisheries products within the commonwealth.

26 (p) Aid in the promotion and development of the commercial fishing industry; investigate 27 improved methods of marketing and distributing commercial fish products within the 28 commonwealth; and establish standards and design labels for the identification of commercial 29 fish products processed, prepared or packed for distribution and for retail sales.

30 (q) Arrange for lectures and may issue for general distribution such publications as he 31 considers best adapted to promote the interests of commercial fisheries.

32 (r) Establish and maintain properties at such places within the commonwealth as he may 33 select for the purpose of propagating, rearing and protecting fish

34 (s) Conduct, coordinate or oversee fish counts and fish stock analyses or other fisheries 35 research for fish species important to Massachusetts fishermen or processors or to the 36 Massachusetts economy.

37 (t) Enter into agreements with public or private entities, including the University of 38 Massachusetts, to perform fish counts and fish stock analyses or other fisheries research.

39 (u) Publish reports or recommendations based on fish counts, fish stock analyses or other 40 fisheries research.

41 (v) Advise the Governor of the potential impact of regulation on the fishing industry.

42 SECTION 4. Section 1 of Chapter 130 of the general laws as appearing in the 2012
43 official edition is hereby amended in line 19 by striking the words “fish and game” and inserting 44 in place thereof “agricultural resources and marine fisheries”

45 Said section is hereby further amended in line 21 by striking the words “fish and game”
46 and inserting in place thereof “agricultural resources and marine fisheries”.

47 SECTION 5. Section 1A of Chapter 130 of general laws as appearing in the 2012 official 48 edition is hereby amended by striking the first two sentences in lines 1 through 7 and inserting in 49 place thereof the following:

50 The division of marine fisheries shall be within the department of agricultural resources 51 and marine fisheries in the executive office of environmental affairs and shall be under the 52 administrative supervision of a director who shall be called the director of marine fisheries. The

53 director of the division of marine fisheries shall be appointed and may be removed by the 54 commissioner of the department of agricultural resources and marine fisheries with the approval 55 of the marine fisheries advisory commission.

56 SECTION 6. (a) Notwithstanding any general or special law to the contrary, this section
57 shall facilitate the orderly transfer of the employees, proceedings, rules and regulations, property 58 and legal obligations and functions of state government from the department of fish and game to 59 the department of agricultural resources and marine fisheries and resources, as transferee agency.

60 (b) Subject to appropriation, the employees of the transferor agency, including those who 61 immediately before the effective date of this act held permanent appointment in positions
62 classified under chapter 31 of the General Laws or have tenure in their positions as provided by 63 section 9A of chapter 30 of the General Laws or did not hold such tenure, or held confidential 64 positions, are hereby transferred to the transferee agency, without interruption of service within 65 the meaning of section 9A of chapter 30, without impairment of seniority, retirement or other 66 rights of the employee, and without reduction in compensation or salary grade, notwithstanding 67 any change in title or duties resulting from such reorganization, and without loss of accrued
68 rights to holidays, sick leave, vacation and benefits, and without change in union representation 69 or certified collective bargaining unit as certified by the state labor relations commission or in 70 local union representation or affiliation. Any collective bargaining agreement in effect 71 immediately before the transfer date shall continue in effect and the terms and conditions of 72 employment therein shall continue as if the employees had not been so transferred. The 73 reorganization shall not impair the civil service status of any such reassigned employee who 74 immediately before the effective date of this act either held a permanent appointment in a

75 position classified under chapter 31 of the General Laws or had tenure in a position by reason of 76 section 9A of chapter 30 of the General Laws.

77 (c) Notwithstanding any general or special law to the contrary, all such employees shall 78 continue to retain their right to bargain collectively pursuant to chapter 150E of the General
79 Laws and shall be considered employees for the purposes of chapter 150E.

80 Nothing in this section shall confer upon any employee any right not held immediately 81 before the date of the transfer, or to prohibit any reduction of salary grade, transfer,
82 reassignment, suspension, discharge or layoff not prohibited before such date; nor shall anything 83 in this section prohibit the abolition of any management position within the division of marine 84 fisheries after transfer to the department.

85 (d) All petitions, requests, investigations, filings and other proceedings appropriately and 86 duly brought before the transferor agency, or pending before it before the effective date of this 87 act, shall continue unabated and remain in force, but shall be assumed and completed by the 88 transferee agency.

89 (e) All orders, advisories, findings, rules and regulations duly made and all approvals 90 duly granted by the transferor agency, which are in force immediately before the effective date of 91 this act, shall continue in force and shall thereafter be enforced, until superseded, revised, 92 rescinded or canceled, in accordance with law, by the transferee agency.

93 (f) All books, papers, records, documents, equipment, buildings, facilities, cash and other 94 property, both personal and real, including all such property held in trust, which immediately 95 before the effective date of this act are in the custody of the transferor agency, shall be 96 transferred to the transferee agency.

97 (g) All duly existing contracts, leases and obligations of the transferor agency, shall 98 continue in effect but shall be assumed by the transferee agency. No such existing right or 99 remedy of any character shall be lost, impaired or affected by this act.

100 (h) Whenever the term “department of agricultural resources” appears in any statute, 101 regulation, contract or other document, it shall be taken to mean the “department agricultural 102 resources and marine fisheries”
