An Act relative to conserving bluefin tuna.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1           Resolved, there is hereby created a special commission to study the existing bluefin tuna
2 fishery in Massachusetts coastal waters, to promote the continued viability of the species, to 3 restore a significant population of giant bluefin tuna, to examine the economic and biological 4 impacts of different fishing techniques, such as hook and line, traditional harpooning and purse
5 seining and to examine the interaction of commercial and recreational bluefin tuna fisheries.
6 Said special commission shall compile and evaluate historical data on the frequency, location
7 and size distribution of bluefin tuna taken in Massachusetts waters and the fishing techniques 8 used. Said special commission shall be comprised of three members of the house of 9 representatives, to be appointed by the speaker, two members of the senate, to be appointed by 10 the senate president, and seven members to be appointed by the governor, one of whom shall be

11 representative of commercial purse seine tuna fishing interests, one of whom shall be 12 representative of traditional harpooning of tuna interests, one of whom shall be representative of 13 commercial hook and line tuna fishing interests, one of whom shall be representative of 14 recreational tuna fishing interests, one of whom shall be representative of the division of coastal 15 zone management, one of whom shall be representative of the division of marine fisheries and 16 one of whom shall be representative of the marine trades industry. Said special commission may 17 conduct its meetings at facilities of the commonwealth located in coastal communities and shall 18 report its findings to the committee on natural resources, the division of marine fisheries and the 19 division of coastal zone management no later than November 30, 2016.
