An Act relative to liability protection for disaster volunteers.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Chapter 112 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2012 Official Edition,
2 is hereby amended by adding the following sections:-

3 Section 12C ½. Whereas licensed registered nurses are critical, necessary volunteers in 4 disasters and emergencies occurring in the commonwealth, in order to provide for community
5 need, as volunteers they require protection from the commonwealth for licensure board 6 discipline; for civil and/or criminal liability and/or prosecution for injury or harm caused to a 7 patient cared for while serving as a volunteer; and for protection from injury or harm he/she 8 personally suffers during the course or as a result of his/her volunteer service.;

9 (a) As used in this section, the following words, shall, unless the context clearly requires 10 otherwise, have the following meanings:-

11 “Disaster”, an emergency detrimental to the public health declared by the governor of the 12 commonwealth of Massachusetts under section 2A of Chapter 17; a state of emergency declared

13 by the governor under chapter 639 of the Acts of 1950 (“Civil Defense Act”); and/or a public 14 health incident where local public health authorities have issued a request for volunteers because 15 local resources have been or are expected to be exhausted or are insufficient.

16 “Patient”, an individual who receives health services from a licensed registered nurse 17 during a declared disaster or emergency.

18 “Volunteer”, a licensed registered nurse in good standing who volunteers his/her services 19 in a disaster or emergency without compensation or expectation of payment.

20 (b) A registered nurse licensed in the commonwealth of Massachusetts with no
21 encumbrance on his/her license who provides oversight or direct care to patients who are victims
22 of a disaster or emergency declared by the governor of the commonwealth of Massachusetts or 23 local public health authorities is not subject to licensure board discipline under sections 74 to 24 81C of chapter 112 of the general laws, or to civil or criminal liability or prosecution for any 25 injury or harm that results from any act or omission that does not amount to criminal negligence:

26 (c) A volunteer as defined in subsection (a) who sustains injury, disability or who dies 27 while serving as a volunteer shall be construed to be an employee of the commonwealth and 28 shall be compensated in like manner as state employees are compensated under the provisions of 29 sections 69 through 75 of chapter 152 of the general laws.
