The commission shall review the state of suicide prevention programs in Massachusetts' correctional facilities and develop model plans, recommend program changes, highlight budget priorities and recommend best practices that could be utilized to reduce instances of prisoner and correctional officer suicide, and attempted suicide. The commission shall: (1) examine and evaluate the state of jail and prison suicide prevention policies in the commonwealth; (2) examine and evaluate suicide prevention training for correctional facility staff personnel in the commonwealth; (3) develop recommendations on ways in which correctional facilities can improve intake screening and bookkeeping; (4) examine and develop recommendations on methods by which correctional facilities may improve identification, referral, and evaluation of individual suicide risk; (5) provide recommendations for improving communication between detention facility staff and arresting and/or transporting officers, as well as between detention facility staff and potentially suicidal inmates; (6) examine and develop recommendations on methods by which correctional facilities may improve housing designated for inmates identified as suicidal; (7) provide recommendations for improving observation and treatment plans for inmates identified as suicidal; (8) provide recommendations for improving suicide intervention; and (9) examine and develop recommendations for how correctional facilities may improve or establish practices of postmortem notification, reporting, and mortality-morbidity reviewing. (10) develop recommendations for the provision of mental health counseling services to corrections officers that have a need for such services. (11) examine ways in which correctional facilities can reduce stress, anxiety, and depression among corrections officers. (12) examine training programs for incoming corrections officers and develop recommendations for programs to include a discussion of mental preparedness.

The commission may hold public hearings to assist in the collection and evaluation of data and testimony.

The commission shall submit its findings and recommendations relative to suicide prevention, together with drafts of legislation necessary to carry those recommendations into effect, by filing the same with the clerks of the house of representatives and senate, the house and senate committees on ways and means, the joint committee on public safety and homeland security, and the joint committee on mental health and substance abuse not later than March 31, 2017.
