To the Honorable Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts in General Court assembled:

The undersigned legislators and/or citizens respectfully petition for the adoption of the accompanying bill:

An Act regulating pawnbrokers.

PETITION OF:

NAME:

James E. Timilty

DISTRICT/ADDRESS:

Bristol and Norfolk

SENATE No. 1312

By Mr. Timilty, a petition (accompanied by bill, Senate, No. 1312) of James E. Timilty for legislation to regulate pawnbrokers. Public Safety and Homeland Security.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Eighty-Ninth General Court
(2015-2016)

An Act regulating pawnbrokers.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Section 75 of chapter 140, as so appearing, is hereby amended by striking
2 out, in line 5, the words “fifty dollars” and inserting in place thereof the following words: - two
3 hundred dollars for the first offense, and by a fine of not more than five hundred dollars for each
4 subsequent offense. A violation of this section shall constitute a violation of section 2 of Chapter 5 93A.

6 SECTION 2. Section 76 of chapter 140, as so appearing, is hereby amended by striking
7 out, in lines 1 and 2, the words, “in any city or in any town of ten thousand or more inhabitants,”.

8 SECTION 3. Chapter 140 is hereby further amended by striking out section 79, as so
9 appearing, and inserting in place thereof the following section: -

10 Section 79. Every person who carries on the business of a pawnbroker shall at the time 11 of making a loan record information pertaining to every transaction, including but not limited to 12 the name, address and date of birth of the person pawning an article, the amount of money

13 loaned thereon, the rate of interest to be paid on such loan, a full description of the article 14 including all distinguishing marks and numbers, and the time and date of the transaction, and 15 shall not accept an article unless the person offering it shows an identification card bearing the 16 person's photograph. The pawnbroker or any employee thereof shall photograph the person
17 offering an article in pawn, and shall photograph the articles being pawned. Said transaction
18 information, the photographs of the person pawning the article or articles, the article or articles
19 pawned, shall be transmitted electronically by the next business day, using the New England
20 State Police Information Network, to be housed by the Executive Office of Public Safety, and 21 shall be retained on the licensed premises a digital copy of the transaction information and digital
22 copy of the photographs as part of his records. All information gathered, recorded or transmitted
23 in any manner by pawnbrokers pursuant to this section shall be available to any law enforcement 24 officer at any time for any reason, or to the licensing authority of any city or town or their 25 designee, and no pawnbroker or person pawning any article shall have an expectation of privacy
26 concerning any information about the transaction, including but not limited to any photographs
27 taken. No item carrying an identifiable serial number shall be required to be photographed, so 28 long as serial and model numbers are submitted with the transaction information.

29 Any person offering any article for pawn who provides a wrong name, address or date of 30 birth, or shows false, forged or counterfeit identification shall be punished by a fine of not more
31 than one thousand dollars or by imprisonment for not more than six months. A police officer
32 may arrest without a warrant any person whom he has probable cause to believe has provided a 33 wrong name, address or date of birth, or has shown false, forged or counterfeit identification as 34 described above. Any pawnbroker who knowingly records or transmits false information about a 35 transaction shall be fined not more than one thousand dollars for the first offense, and upon a second offense shall be fined not more than two thousand dollars and his license may be revoked, and he may not be permitted to conduct the business of a pawnbroker in the commonwealth for one year.

The Executive Office of Public Safety shall not impose a fee on anyone submitting information to this system.

SECTION 4. Chapter 140 of the general laws is hereby amended after Section 84 by adding the following new section.

Section 84A. If it appears to the police commissioner and of the superintendent and chief inspector of police of Boston, of the colonel of the state police, and of the chief of police and selectmen of their respective cities or towns, or of an officer specially authorized by any of them in writing for that purpose that any articles pledged under the provisions of section 70 of chapter 140 have been stolen, he may give written notice to the pledgee to hold such articles, and they shall thereafter be held by the pledgee for sixty days unless said notice shall be recalled in writing by the officer giving it, and be subject to inspection and examination at all reasonable times; and they shall be produced, upon notice or summons by the district attorney or other prosecuting officer, before any court or grand jury if the question of the larceny of the same is under investigation, and said pledgee shall not be liable in damages or otherwise on account of such detention.

SECTION 5. Section 71 of Chapter 140 is amended by striking it in its entirety and inserting in place thereof the following new section.

Section 71. Articles deposited in pawn with a licensed pawnbroker shall, unless redeemed, be retained by him on the premises occupied by him for his business for at least four months after the date of deposit, if not of a perishable nature; and, if perishable, for at least one month after said date. After the expiration of the applicable period of time, he may sell the articles, apply the proceeds thereof in satisfaction of the debt or demand and the expense of the notice and sale, and pay any surplus to the person entitled thereto on demand, provided that such demand is made in writing within one year of said sale; provided, that no such sale of any article which is not of a perishable nature shall be made unless not less than ten days prior to the sale a written notice of the intended sale shall have been sent to the person entitled to the payment of any surplus as aforesaid, addressed to his residence, as appearing in the records of such pawnbroker. No article taken in pawn by such pawnbroker exceeding twenty-five dollars in value shall be disposed of otherwise than as above provided, any agreement or contract between the parties thereto to the contrary notwithstanding. Articles of personal apparel shall not be deemed to be of a perishable nature within the meaning of this section.

SECTION 6. Section 81 of chapter 140 is hereby repealed.

SECTION 7. Section 83 of chapter 140 is hereby repealed.

SECTION 8. Section 84 of chapter 140 is hereby repealed.

SECTION 9. This act shall take effect 180 days after its passage.
