The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Eighty-Ninth General Court
(2015-2016)

An Act authorizing tax free contributions to a trust for the care of incapacitated persons.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Chapter 62 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2012 Official Edition,
2 is hereby amended by inserting after section 6I the following section:— Section 6m. A parent or 3 guardian of a person who is disabled, as defined in the federal Social Security Act, 42 U.S.C.
4 subsection 1382c (a)(3)(A), may contribute an amount not to exceed ten percent of his gross
5 income to a supplemental needs trust for the care of such disabled person and such contribution
6 shall be exempt from taxation under the provisions of this chapter. For purposes of this
7 paragraph, a “supplemental needs trust” shall mean a trust used to provide a supplemental source
8 for payment of goods and services that are otherwise unavailable from any publicly funded
9 benefit program or to provide a higher quality of care than is otherwise available.
