An Act relative to the exemption of private pension income from taxation.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1            Subsection B of Section 3 of Chapter 62 of the General Laws, is hereby amended by 2            adding the following subparagraph:-

3            (5) Amounts not to exceed $2,000 received by persons under age 60 as pensions from 4            employers, the United States, the State or any subdivision, or amounts not to exceed $12,500
5            received by persons age 60 or older as pensions from employers, the United States, the State or 6            any subdivision or as eligible retirement income.

7            For the purposes of this paragraph, "eligible retirement income" shall include 8            distributions received from qualified retirement plans defined in § 4974 of the federal Internal 9            Revenue Code ("IRC") [26 U.S.C. § 4974] or a successor provision, cash or deferred
10           arrangements described in IRC § 401(k) [26 U.S.C. § 401(k)] or a successor provision,

11 government deferred compensation plans described in IRC § 457 [26 U.S.C. § 457] or a 12 successor provision, dividends, capital gains, interest and rental income from real property less 13 deductible rental expenses. For purposes of this paragraph, eligible retirement income received 14 by spouses as joint tenants with right of survivorship or as tenants by the entirety shall be 15 deemed to have been received one-half by each.
