By Ms. Chang-Diaz, a petition (accompanied by bill, Senate, No. 1618) of Sonia Chang-Diaz and James B. Eldridge for legislation relative to jobs, workforce development, and main street fairness. State Administration and Regulatory Oversight.

[SIMILAR MATTER FILED IN PREVIOUS SESSION
SEE SENATE, NO. 1462 OF 2013-2014.]

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Eighty-Ninth General Court
(2015-2016)

An Act relative to jobs, workforce development, and main street fairness.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Section 1 of Chapter 7 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2012
2 Official Edition, is hereby amended by inserting after the last paragraph the following
3 paragraphs:-

4 “Low income community”, a municipality where the median household income is 65
5 percent or less than the statewide household median income. In the case of a municipality with 6 50,000 residents or more, low income community shall mean a geographically contiguous,
7 historically recognized neighborhood of 10,000-50,000 residents.

8 “Minority business enterprise”, as used in this chapter shall be defined as it is in Section
9 58 of Chapter 7 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2012 Official Edition.

“Women business enterprise” as used in this chapter shall be defined as it is in Section 58 of Chapter 7 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2012 Official Edition.

SECTION 16. Section 1 of chapter 64H, as so appearing in the 2012 Official Edition, is hereby amended by striking lines 10 to 41, inclusive, and inserting in place thereof the following definition:-

“Engaged in business in the commonwealth”, having a business location in the commonwealth; regularly or systematically soliciting orders for the sale of services to be performed within the commonwealth or for the sale of tangible personal property for delivery to

93 destinations in the commonwealth; otherwise exploiting the retail sales market in the 94 commonwealth through any means whatsoever, including, but not limited to, salesmen, solicitors
95 or representatives in the commonwealth, catalogs or other solicitation materials sent through the 96 mails or otherwise, billboards, advertising or solicitations in newspapers, magazines, radio or
97 television broadcasts, computer networks or in any other communications medium; or regularly
98 engaged in the delivery of property or the performance of services in the commonwealth. A
99 person shall be considered to have a business location in the commonwealth only if such person
100 (i) owns or leases real property within the commonwealth; (ii) has one or more employees
101 located in the commonwealth; (iii) regularly maintains a stock of tangible personal property in 102 the commonwealth for sale in the ordinary course of business; or (iv) regularly leases out
103 tangible personal property for use in the commonwealth. The term “engaged in business in the 104 commonwealth” shall also have the meaning set forth in section 1A of chapter 64H. For the
105 purposes of this paragraph and section 1A of chapter 64H, property on consignment in the hands
106 of a consignee and offered for sale by the consignee on his own account shall not be considered
107 as stock maintained by the consignor; a person having a business location in the commonwealth
108 solely by reason of regularly leasing out tangible personal property shall be considered to have a
109 business location in the commonwealth only with respect to such leased property; and an
110 employee shall be considered to be located in the commonwealth if (a) his service is performed
111 entirely within the commonwealth or (b) his service is performed both within and without the 112 commonwealth but in the performance of his services he regularly commences his activities at,
113 and returns to, a place within the commonwealth. “Within the commonwealth” means within the 114 exterior limits of the commonwealth of Massachusetts, and includes all territory within said
115 limits owned by, or leased or ceded to, the United States of America.

SECTION 17. Said chapter 64H, as so appearing, is hereby amended by inserting, after section 1, the following new section:-

(a) A vendor shall be presumed to be “engaged in business in the commonwealth” for purposes of this chapter and chapter 64I if any person, other than a person acting in its capacity as a common carrier, that has substantial nexus in the commonwealth:

(1) sells a similar line of products as the vendor and does so under the same or a similar business name;

(2) maintains an office, distribution facility, warehouse, storage place, or similar place of business in the commonwealth to facilitate the delivery of property or services sold by the vendor to the vendor’s customers;

(3) uses trademarks, service marks, or trade names in the commonwealth that are the same or substantially similar to those used by the vendor;

(4) delivers, installs, assembles, or performs maintenance services for the vendor’s customers within the commonwealth;

(5) facilitates the vendor’s delivery of property to customers in the commonwealth by allowing the vendor’s customers to pick up property sold by the vendor at an office, distribution facility, warehouse, storage place, or similar place of business maintained by the person in the commonwealth;

(6) maintains any business location within the commonwealth, including, but not limited to a technology facility, engineering facility, software development facility, research facility, or similar business location in the commonwealth if such business location facilitates the sale of property or services sold by the vendor to the vendor's customers or facilitates the development of the vendor's market for sales in the commonwealth; or

(7) conducts any other activities in the commonwealth that are significantly associated with the vendor's ability to establish and maintain a market in the commonwealth for the vendor's sales.

(b) The presumptions in paragraph (a) of this section may be rebutted by demonstrating that the person's activities in the commonwealth are not significantly associated with the vendor's ability to establish or maintain a market in the commonwealth for the vendor's sales.

SECTION 18. Section 2 of said chapter 64H, as so appearing, is hereby amended by striking the last sentence and inserting in place thereof the following new sentence:-

The excise shall be paid by every vendor engaged in business in the commonwealth to the commissioner at the time provided for filing the return required by section 16 of chapter 62C.

SECTION 19. Section 3 of said chapter 64H, as so appearing, is hereby amended by inserting, in line 3, after the words "and each vendor" the following new words:- engaged in business

SECTION 20. Section 1 of chapter 149 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2012 Official Edition is hereby amended by inserting after the last paragraph the following paragraphs:-

"Low income community", a municipality where the median household income is 65 percent or less than the statewide household median income. In the case of a municipality with 50,000 residents or more, low income community shall mean a geographically contiguous, historically recognized neighborhood of 10,000-50,000 residents.

“Minority business enterprise”, as used in this chapter shall be defined as it is in Section 58 of Chapter 7 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2012 Official Edition

“Women business enterprise” as used in this chapter shall be defined as it is in Section 58 of Chapter 7 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2012 Official Edition.

SECTION 21. Section 44A of said chapter 149, as so appearing, is hereby amended by striking out lines 12-16, and inserting in its place thereof the following text:-

“Responsible” means demonstrably possessing the skill, ability and the integrity necessary to faithfully perform the work called for by a particular contract, based upon a determination of competent workmanship and financial soundness in accordance with the provisions of section forty-four D of this chapter. In deliberating upon the responsibility of a bidder, all contracting agencies shall give strong consideration to the bidder, contractor, or proposed contractor’s ability to advance the Commonwealth’s contracting and workforce inclusion goals as stated in Section 44A ½ of Chapter 149, and to any credible evidence or reliable information about the bidder, contractor, or proposed contractor’s past or current work performance, including, but not limited to, the failure of a bidder, contractor, or proposed subcontractor to comply with the commitments made in their bidding or contract documents regarding the employment of minority business enterprises and women business enterprises and regarding workforce inclusion goals.

SECTION 22. Section 44A½ of said chapter 149, as so appearing, is hereby amended by inserting after the last paragraph the following paragraphs:-

(d) It shall be the goal of the Commonwealth to achieve minority business enterprise and women business enterprise contracting goals and workforce participation goals on the totality of state-funded design and construction contracts that are reflective of the diverse racial, ethnic, and gender make-up of the Commonwealth's population.

(e) It shall be the goal of the Commonwealth that job creation on state-funded construction contracts be targeted to members of the community in which a project is physically located and that the workforce on that project reflect the demographic diversity of the host community, when construction projects are located in low income communities.

SECTION 23. Section 44D½ of said chapter 149, as so appearing, is hereby amended by inserting after line 92, the following text:-

(viii) Joint Ventures, documentation demonstrating that the interested general contractors have formed an association of two or more businesses in which one of the businesses is a minority business enterprise or a women business enterprise as defined in Section 58 of Chapter 7 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2012 Official Edition.

SECTION 24. Said section 44D½ of said chapter 149, as so appearing, is hereby amended by inserting after line 110, the following text:-

(iii) Evidence of the bidder, contractor, or proposed contractor's ability to advance the Commonwealth's contracting and workforce inclusion goals as stated in Section 44A ½ of Chapter 149.

SECTION 25. Said chapter 149, as so appearing, is hereby amended by inserting after section 44M the following section:-

Section 44N. Data collection and disclosure

Within 150 calendar days of the effective date of this section, any entity awarded a contract for construction by a state agency shall provide written verification with every progress payment request (PPR) submitted to the awarding authority detailing the portion of the payment that will be allocated to minority business enterprises and women business enterprises respectively, as defined in Section 58 of Chapter 7, and detailing the total number of hours worked by all employees on that contract during the period covered by the PPR; and including a breakdown of hours worked by workers' ZIP codes of residence, as well as a breakdown of the number of hours worked by women and workers of color, respectively. The reporting entity shall take necessary steps to prevent the disclosure of individually-identifying information about employees on this report.

The executive office of administration and finance shall, within 90 calendar days of the effective date of this section, promulgate a template reporting form, for optional use by the awarding authority, to assist contractors in meeting the requirements of this section.

The awarding authority shall submit the report to the Massachusetts Management and Reporting System (MMARS) within 30 calendar days of receiving it. The Comptroller of the Commonwealth shall, within 120 of the effective date of this section, develop appropriate fields within the MMARS for receiving this data.

SECTION 26. There is hereby established a commission on vocational-technical education in the twenty first century, to investigate and study the feasibility of authorizing public vocational-technical high schools to award post-secondary associates degrees. The commission shall consist of 14 members: the secretary of education or the secretary's designee who shall

222 serve as chair of the commission; 2 members of the house of representatives, to be appointed by
223 the speaker of the house; 2 members of the senate, to be appointed by the senate president; 4
224 members to be appointed by the Massachusetts Association of Vocational Administrators; 3
225 individuals to be appointed by the governor; the commissioner of higher education or a designee;
226 and the commissioner of workforce development or a designee. The commission shall report to 227 the general court the results of its investigation and study and its recommendations, if any,
228 together with any drafts of legislation necessary to carry out such recommendations, by filing the 229 same with the clerks of the senate and house who shall forward the same to the chairs of the joint 230 committee on education on or before December 31, 2015.
