The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Eighty-Ninth General Court
(2015-2016)

An Act relative to second hand dealers.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 Chapter 140 of the General Laws is hereby amended by inserting at the end thereof the 2 following:-

3 Section 207. Second-Hand Dealers. The police commissioner of Boston, the license 4 commission of Lowell, the aldermen of any other city, or the selectmen of any town, if 5 ordinances or by-laws therefor have been adopted in such city or town, may license suitable 6 persons to carry on the business of second-hand dealer in such city or town, subject to sections 7 two hundred and two to two hundred and five, inclusive, and may revoke such licenses at 8 pleasure.

9 Section 208. The chief of police of a city, the selectmen of a town, any officer authorized 10 by either of them, or a state police officer may at any time enter upon any premises used by a

11 licensed second-hand dealer for the purposes of his business, ascertain how he conducts his 12 business, and examine all articles purchased or kept or stored in or upon said premises and all
13 books and inventories relating thereto. Every such second-hand dealer, his clerk, agent, servant 14 or other person in charge of the premises shall exhibit to such officer on demand any or all of 15 such articles, books and inventories.

16 Section 209. A licensed second-hand dealer, clerk, agent or other person in charge of 17 such premises who refuses to admit thereto an officer authorized to enter the same, or who fails 18 to exhibit to him on demand all such articles, books and inventories, and any person who wilfully 19 hinders, obstructs or prevents such officer from entering the premises or from making the 20 examination authorized in the preceding section, shall be punished by a fine of not more than 21 two hundred dollars or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or both.

22 Section 210. Whoever, not being licensed, carries on such business or is concerned 23 therein within such town, or, being licensed, carries on such business or is concerned therein in 24 any other place or manner than that designated in his license or after notice to him that his 25 license has been revoked shall be punished by a fine of not more than fifty dollars.

26 Section 211. The fee for a license as a second-hand dealer or renewal thereof shall be 27 established in a town by town meeting action and in a city by city council action, and in a town
28 with no town meeting by town council action, by adoption of appropriate by-laws and ordinances
29 to set such fees, but in no event shall any such fee be greater than one hundred dollars. The 30 licensee shall, at the time of receiving such license, file with the authorities who issue the license 31 a bond to such city or town, in the sum of three hundred dollars, with two sureties approved by such authorities, and conditioned for the faithful performance of the duties and obligations pertaining to the business so licensed.

Section 212. Every second-hand dealer shall keep a book in which, at the time of making a purchase, shall be legibly written in the English language an account and description, including all distinguishing marks and numbers, of the articles purchased, the amount of money paid thereon, the time of purchase, and the name and residence of the person selling such articles, and shall furnish a correct record of such transactions, containing all such information, once a week, or oftener if required, to the licensing authorities or to any person designated by them. Every second-hand dealer shall also photograph any person selling articles and keep the photographs with said books as part of his records.

Section 213. Said book shall at all reasonable times be open to the inspection of the mayor, of the members of the board of police, of the superintendent of police and deputy superintendents, of the chief inspector of police, of any officer of the state police or of any person authorized by them in writing for that purpose who exhibits such written authority to such second-hand dealer.

Section 214. Whoever violates any provision of the 7 preceding sections shall be punished by a fine of not less than fifty nor more than three hundred dollars or by imprisonment for not more than two months, or both.

Section 215. Any second-hand dealer who violates the provisions of section 212 in reference to articles purchased which are found to be stolen articles shall be liable for the loss incurred, and the purchased article may be reclaimed by the owner of the same.
