The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Eighty-Ninth General Court
(2015-2016)

An Act relative to prejudgment interest.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Chapter 231 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2012 Official Edition,
2 is hereby amended by striking out section 6B and inserting in place thereof the following section:

4 Section 6B. In any action in which a verdict is rendered or a finding made or an order for 5 judgment made for pecuniary damages for personal injuries to the plaintiff or for consequential 6 damages, or for damage to property, there shall be added by the clerk of court to the amount of 7 damages simple interest thereon from the date of commencement of the action even though such 8 interest brings the amount of the verdict or finding beyond the maximum liability imposed by 9 law. The rate of interest for each year shall equal 4 percent plus the weekly average 1-year
10 constant maturity Treasury yield as published by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve

System for the last week in December of the preceding year. The state court administrator shall distribute notice of the applicable rates of interest to all district courts.

SECTION 2. Said chapter 231 is hereby further amended by striking out section 6C, as appearing in the 2012 Official Edition, and inserting in place thereof the following section: -

Section 6C. In all actions based on contractual obligations, upon a verdict, finding or order for judgment for pecuniary damages, interest shall be added by the clerk of the court to the amount of damages from the date of the breach or demand. If the date of the breach or demand is not established, interest shall be added by the clerk of the court from the date of the commencement of the action. If the interest rate is fixed by a contract on which the verdict, finding, or order for judgment is rendered, the interest allowed shall be at the rate and in the manner established in the contract. When there is no established contract rate, simple interest shall be added at the rate specified in section 6B of chapter 231, provided, however, that in all actions based on contractual obligations, upon a verdict, finding or order for judgment against the commonwealth for pecuniary damages, interest shall be added by the clerk of the court to the amount of damages, at the contract rate, if established, or at a rate calculated pursuant to the provisions of section 6I from the date of the breach or demand.

SECTION 3. Said chapter 231 is hereby further amended by striking out section 60K, as appearing in the 2012 Official Edition, and inserting in place thereof the following section: -

Section 60K. In any action for malpractice, negligence, error, omission, mistake or unauthorized rendering of professional services, other than actions brought under section 2 of Chapter 229, against a provider of health care, in which a verdict is rendered or a finding made or an order for judgment made for pecuniary damages for personal injuries to the plaintiff or for

33 consequential damages, there shall be added by the clerk of the court to the amount of damages 34 simple interest thereon, at the rate specified in section 6B of chapter 231, from the date of the 35 commencement of the action even though such interest brings the amount of the verdict or 36 finding beyond the maximum liability imposed by law.
