In the One Hundred and Eighty-Ninth General Court

1           SECTION 1. The first paragraph of section 3 of chapter 185C of the General Laws, as 2 appearing in the 2014 Official Edition, is hereby amended by adding the following sentence:-
3 The divisions of the housing court department, subject to the provisions of section 14 of chapter 4 244, shall also have jurisdiction of defenses or counterclaims by any party entitled to notice of 5 sale under said section or by any party entitled to said notice of sale and who continues to occupy 6 the mortgaged premises.

7           SECTION 2. Chapter 244 of the General Laws, is hereby amended by striking section 15, 8 as appearing in the 2014 Official Edition, and inserting in place thereof the following section:-

9           Section 15. (a) For the purposes of this section, the following terms shall, unless the 10 context clearly requires otherwise, have the following meanings:-

11           “Arm’s length third party purchaser for value”, an arm’s length purchaser who pays 12 valuable consideration, including a purchaser’s heirs, successors and assigns but not including 13 the foreclosing party or mortgage note holder or a parent, subsidiary, affiliate or agent of the 14 foreclosing party or mortgage note holder or an investor or guarantor of the underlying mortgage

15 note including, but not limited to, the Federal National Mortgage Association, the Federal Home
16 Loan Mortgage Corporation and the Federal Housing Administration.

17 “Deadline”, 3 years from the date of the recording of the affidavit.

18 (b) The person selling, or the attorney duly authorized by a writing or the legal guardian
19 or conservator of such person, shall, after the sale, cause a copy of the notice and his or her 20 affidavit, fully and particularly stating his or her acts, or the acts of his or her principal or wards, 21 to be recorded in the registry of deeds for the county or district where the land lies, with a note of 22 reference thereto on the margin of the record of the mortgage deed, if it is recorded in the same
23 registry. If the affidavit shows that the requirements of the power of sale and of the statute have 24 in all respects been complied with, the affidavit or a certified copy of the record thereof, shall be 25 admitted as evidence that the power of sale was duly executed.

26 (c) An affidavit executed in accordance with this section shall, after 3 years from the date 27 of its recording, be conclusive evidence in favor of an arm’s length third party purchaser for 28 value at or subsequent to the foreclosure sale that the power of sale under the foreclosed 29 mortgage was duly executed and that the sale complied with this chapter and section 21 of 30 chapter 183. An arm’s length third party purchaser for value relying on such affidavit shall not 31 be liable for a foreclosure if the power of sale was not duly exercised. Absent a challenge as set 32 forth in clause (i) or (ii) of subsection (d), title to the real property acquired by the arm’s length 33 third party purchaser shall not be set aside.

34 (d) Subsection (c) shall not apply if: (i) a legal action to challenge the validity of the 35 foreclosure sale has been commenced in a court of competent jurisdiction by any party entitled to 36 notice of sale under section 14 or the challenge has been asserted as a defense or a counterclaim

37 in a legal action in a court of competent jurisdiction, including the housing court department 38 pursuant to section 3 of chapter 185C for such defense or counterclaim, by any party entitled to 39 notice of sale under section 14 and a true and correct copy of the complaint or other pleading 40 asserting such challenge is duly recorded in the registry of deeds for the county or district in 41 which the subject real property lies before the deadline or in the land court registry district before 42 the deadline; or (ii) a challenge to the validity of the foreclosure sale is asserted as a defense or 43 counterclaim in a legal action in a court of competent jurisdiction, including the housing court 44 department pursuant to section 3 of chapter 185C, by any party entitled to notice of sale under 45 section 14 who continues to occupy the mortgaged premises as such party's principal place of 46 residence, regardless of whether such challenge is asserted prior to the deadline, and a true and 47 correct copy of any pleading asserting such challenge in the legal action is duly recorded in the 48 registry of deeds for the county or district in which the subject property lies or is duly filed in the 49 land court registry district within 60 days from the date of the challenge or before the deadline, 50 whichever is later.

51 An attested true and correct copy of the complaint or pleading described in this 52 subsection shall be accepted for recording in the registry of deeds or, in the case of registered 53 land, in the land court registry district.

54 After the entry of a final judgment in a legal challenge under clause (i) or (ii) and the 55 final resolution of any appeal of that judgment, the affidavit shall immediately become 56 conclusive evidence of the validity of the sale if the final judgment concludes that the power of 57 sale was duly exercised. If the final judgment concludes that the power of sale was not duly 58 exercised, the foreclosure sale and affidavit shall be void. If the final judgment does not 59 determine the validity of the foreclosure sale and the deadline for the affidavit to become

60 conclusive has not expired, any party entitled to notice of sale under section 14 may file or assert 61 another legal challenge to the validity of the foreclosure sale under clause (i) or (ii).

62 (e) The recording of an affidavit and the expiration of the deadline shall not relieve an 63 affiant or any other person on whose behalf an affidavit was executed and recorded from any 64 liability for failure to comply with this section, section 14 or any other requirement of law with 65 respect to the foreclosure.

66 (f) A material misrepresentation contained in the affidavit shall constitute a violation of 67 section 2 of chapter 93A.

68 SECTION 3. For purposes of any affidavit filed pursuant to section 15 of chapter 244 of 69 the General Laws before the effective date of this act, the term “deadline” in said section shall 70 mean 3 years from the date of the recording of the affidavit or 1 year from the effective date of 71 this act, whichever is later.

72 SECTION 4. The attorney general, in collaboration with the commissioner of banks, shall 73 work with stakeholders participating in the foreclosure industry and stakeholders participating in 74 foreclosure prevention, reduction or education programs to provide notification of the effects of 75 this act to homeowners facing foreclosure and homeowners who were foreclosed upon. For the 76 purposes of this section “stakeholders” shall include, but not be limited to, participants in the

84 The attorney general shall report to the clerks of the house of representatives and the 85 senate not later than December 1, 2016 detailing notification efforts and the implementation of 86 this section.

87 SECTION 5. Except as otherwise provided, this act shall apply to affidavits recorded
88 pursuant to section 15 of chapter 244 of the General Laws before, on, or after the effective date 89 of this act.

90 SECTION 6. This act shall take effect on December 31, 2015.
