SENATE No. 213

By Mr. Eldridge, a petition (accompanied by bill, Senate, No. 213) of James B. Eldridge, Jason M. Lewis, Peter V. Kocot, Lori A. Ehrlich and other members of the General Court for legislation relative to corporations, shareholders, and political expenditures. Economic Development and Emerging Technologies.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Eighty-Ninth General Court
(2015-2016)

An Act relative to corporations, shareholders, and political expenditures.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Chapter 156D of the General Laws is hereby amended by inserting after the
2 last section the following section:-

3 Section X. (a) A corporation may not use any money or other property of the corporation
4 in connection with an independent expenditure, contribution, gift, transfer, disbursement, or
5 promise of money or a thing of value to promote or assist in the promotion of the success or 6 defeat of a candidate, political party, or ballot question in any state or federal election unless the 7 shareholders of the corporation, by the affirmative vote of a majority of all votes entitled to be 8 cast, have:

9 (1) authorized in advance the total amount of money or property that may be used for all
10 such expenditures during that fiscal year; and

11 (2) directed that the money or property be used for:

- (i) a specified candidate or candidates;
- (ii) candidates of a specified political party or parties;
- (iii) a specified political party or parties;
- (iv) a specified political committee or committees;
- (v) a specified entity or entities exempt from taxation under § 501(c)(4) or § 501(c)(6) of the internal revenue code; or
- (vi) a specified ballot referendum or referendums; and
- (3) the corporation's action complies in manner and scope with the shareholders' authorization.

Violations of this subsection are hereby declared to be ultra vires, per se wasteful of corporate assets and a violation of the standards of conduct for officers and directors set forth under this chapter.

(b) shareholder consideration of said expenditures may occur at an annual or special meeting of the shareholders.

(c) corporations making such expenditures shall:

(1) provide notice, by electronic transmission within 48 hours of making the expenditure, to each shareholder stating the amount, recipient and purpose of the independent expenditure, contribution, gift, transfer, disbursement, or promise of money or a thing of value to promote or assist in the promotion of the success or defeat of a candidate, political party, or ballot question in any state or federal election.

(2) include the amount, recipient and purpose of the independent expenditure, contribution, gift, transfer, disbursement, or promise of money or a thing of value to promote or assist in the promotion of the success or defeat of a candidate, political party, or ballot question in any state or federal election made in the preceding 12 months in all quarterly and annual reports to shareholders.

(d) an officer or director of a corporation that makes or authorizes an expenditure, contribution, gift, transfer, disbursement, or promise of money or a thing of value to promote or assist in the promotion of the success or defeat of a candidate, political party, or ballot question in any state or federal election that does not comply with subsection (a) of this section shall be personally liable to the corporation for the amount of money or property expended.

In an action relating to an officer or director's authorization of an expenditure, contribution, gift, transfer, disbursement, or promise of money or a thing of value to promote or assist in the promotion of the success or defeat of a candidate, political party, or ballot question in any state or federal election that did not comply with subsection (a) of this section, the director or officer's belief that such authorization was nevertheless in the best interests of the corporation shall not constitute a reasonable belief within the meaning of sections 8.30 or 8.42.

Nothing in this section shall be construed to restrict any officer manager, director or other individual associated with the business entity from personally contributing to a candidate for public office, contributing to a properly organized political committee or from personally financing an independent expenditure otherwise allowed by law.

SECTION 2. Section 14.3 of said chapter 156D, as so appearing, is hereby amended by inserting after paragraph (ii) in subsection 1 the following paragraph:-

54 (iii) The secretary of the commonwealth may revoke a corporation's charter its license to
55 carry on business in the commonwealth upon a finding that the corporation has been held liable
56 for one or more violations of the state's campaign finance or election laws, or upon a finding that 57 a manager or director of such a corporation has been found liable for the violation of the state's 58 campaign finance or election laws or a violation of subsection (a) of this section.
