The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Eighty-Ninth General Court (2015-2016)

An Act to protect locked out employees.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1: Section 30 of chapter 151A is hereby amended by the following:-

2 (d) Notwithstanding the provisions of this subsection (a), the total benefits an individual 3 who has been locked out of his usual place of employment by his employer may receive shall be 4 extended for so long as such individual remains locked out by his employer, up to 26 times the 5 individual’s benefit rate; provided, that such additional benefits shall be paid to the individual 6 only if such individual has exhausted all rights to regular and extended benefits under this 7 chapter and has no rights to benefits or compensation under this chapter or any other state 8 unemployment compensation law or under federal law.
