SENATE No. 2277

By Ms. Jehlen, a petition (accompanied by bill, Senate, No. 2277) (subject to Joint Rule 12) of Patricia D. Jehlen, Paul R. Heroux, Paul J. Donato, Mathew Muratore and other members of the General Court for legislation relative to protecting elders and persons with disabilities. Elder Affairs.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Eighty-Ninth General Court (2015-2016)

An Act protecting elders and persons with disabilities.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Section 18(a) of chapter 19A of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2014
2 official edition, is hereby amended by inserting after the fifth paragraph the following new 3 paragraphs:-

4 “If the district attorney initiates criminal proceedings, the individual charged shall be 5 prohibited from any further contact with the elder, and shall not provide direct caregiving 6 services to any other elder individual until the adjudicatory process is completed.

7 If an individual is charged with a crime arising out of a report of abuse under section 15
8 and pleads guilty, pleads no lo contendere, or is found guilty of that charge or if the case arising 9 out of the report of abuse is continued without a finding, that individual shall not be hired by any 10 facility, home health agency or homemaker agency in a direct service or supervisory capacity nor 11 shall they offer their services, whether publicly or privately funded, as a caregiver or in any other

12 direct service capacity to persons with physical, intellectual or developmental disabilities, 13 children, persons with a mental illness or elderly persons. Any individual in violation of this 14 section shall be subject to a fine of not more than five thousand dollars.”

15 SECTION 2. Section 72J of chapter 111 of the General Laws, as so appearing, is hereby 16 amended by inserting after the word “homemaker”, in line 45, the following:-

17 “Upon making a determination of serious abuse under section 18(a) of chapter 19A, the 18 department shall suspend the right of such individual to work as a nurse aide, home health aide 19 or homemaker. If the individual is charged with a crime arising out of a report of abuse under 20 section 15 of chapter 19A and pleads guilty, pleads no lo contendere, or is found guilty of that 21 charge or if the case arising out of the report of abuse is continued without a finding, the 22 department shall permanently suspend the right of such individual to work as a nurse aide, home 23 health aide or homemaker.”
