An Act creating a maximum allowable check-cashing rate.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1           SECTION 1. Section 13 of chapter 169A of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2014
2   Official Edition, is hereby amended by striking out, in line 3, the words “five hundred dollars”
3   and inserting in place thereof the following figure:- $1,000.

4           SECTION 2. Said chapter 169A is hereby amended by adding the following section:-

5           Section 14. (a) A casher of checks shall not charge or collect fees or other consideration
6   for cashing checks payable to a natural person in excess of a $1 service charge plus:

7                   (i) for a check issued by the commonwealth to a recipient of financial assistance
8   under section 2 of chapter 18 or for a check issued by the United States for a federal social
9   security benefit or other public assistance, 1.5 per cent of the face value of the check;

10                   (ii) for all other government checks issued by the United States or by a state or 11   political subdivision of a state, 2.5 per cent of the face value of the check;

12                   (iii) for a payroll check of $100 or less, 3 per cent of the face value;

13 (iv) for a payroll check greater than $100, 2.25 per cent of the face value;
14 (v) for a personal check, 5 per cent of the face value or $5, whichever is greater;
15 or
16 (vi) for all other payment instruments, including checks, drafts or money orders, 5
17 per cent.

18 (b) No casher of checks licensed or subject to regulation under this chapter shall charge
19 more than $5 to set up an initial customer account.
