77 bearing and noncredit-bearing courses in public institutions of higher education that include

78 nondisabled students, including participation in credit-bearing courses in audit status for students 79 who may not meet course prerequisites or requirements, with necessary supports to facilitate the 80 student's participation and to support inclusion in academic courses, extracurricular activities, 81 internships, work experiences and other aspects of the public institution of higher education's 82 regular postsecondary program; provided, however, that nothing in this subsection shall require a 83 public institution of higher education to provide course enrollment preferences for individuals 84 with severe intellectual disabilities, autism spectrum disorders or other developmental 85 disabilities.

86 Students shall not be required to take a standardized college entrance aptitude test, have a 87 high school diploma or its equivalent, meet minimum academic course requirements, meet 88 minimum grade point average requirements or obtain a passing score on the statewide 89 assessment tests utilized as a basis for competency determinations pursuant to section 1D of 90 chapter 69.

91 SECTION 9. Section 2 of chapter 71B of the General Laws, as so appearing, is hereby 92 amended by striking out, in line 51, the word "and".

94 amended by inserting after the word "department", in line 53, the following words:- ; and (12) 95 for older students ages 18 to 21, inclusive, options including continuing education, enrollment in 96 credit and noncredit courses that include students without disabilities in a public institution of 97 higher education, development of independent living skills, development of skills necessary for 98 employment, development of skills to access community services.

99 SECTION 11. Said chapter 71B of the General Laws is hereby amended by adding the 100 following section:-

101 Section 17. (a) Subject to appropriation, the executive office of education shall develop 102 and administer a discretionary grant program to provide money to school districts and public 103 institutions of higher education partnering together to offer inclusive concurrent enrollment
104 initiative options for school-aged children, ages 18 to 21, inclusive, with disabilities. The grant 105 program shall be limited to students: (i) who are considered to have severe intellectual 106 disabilities, autism spectrum disorders or other developmental disabilities; and (ii) for students 107 ages 18 to 19, inclusive, with severe disabilities who have been unable to achieve the 108 competency determination necessary to pass the statewide assessment test pursuant to section 1D 109 of chapter 69.

110 (b) The grant program shall allow school districts to partner with public institutions of 111 higher education and any relevant state or other agency serving students with severe intellectual 112 disabilities, autism spectrum disorders and other developmental disabilities including, but not 113 limited to, the department of developmental services, the Massachusetts rehabilitation 114 commission or other vocational rehabilitation agency or organization to support that student's 115 academic success, participation in student life of the college community and competitive
116 employment. Partnerships may include: (i) participation in credit-bearing and non-credit courses 117 that include students without disabilities, including participation in credit-bearing courses in 118 audit status for students who may not meet course prerequisites; (ii) participation in on-campus 119 student life activities; (iii) preparation for competitive employment; (iv) the waiver of tuition for 120 courses by the public institution of higher education; (v) the provision of supports and services 121 necessary to facilitate a student's participation and support inclusion in academic courses,

122 extracurricular activities, internships, work experiences and other aspects of the public institution 123 of higher education's regular postsecondary program; (vi) training and technical assistance for 124 teachers, faculty and personnel regarding strategy and teaching methodology to achieve 125 successful inclusion of individuals with severe intellectual disabilities, autism spectrum disorders 126 and other developmental disabilities; (vii) that students with severe intellectual disabilities, 127 autism spectrum disorders and other developmental disabilities are fully included with 128 nondisabled students in all aspects of higher education including, but not limited to, academic 129 and social activities; (viii) the utilization of person-centered planning in the development of the 130 course of study for each participating student; and (ix) opportunities for students with severe 131 intellectual disabilities, autism spectrum disorders and other developmental disabilities to live in 132 residential housing offered to nondisabled students with the accommodations, supports and 133 services necessary to enable inclusive dormitory living if it is offered by the public institute of 134 higher education.

135 (c) The executive office of education, in consultation with the department of elementary 136 and secondary education, the department of higher education and the inclusive concurrent 137 enrollment initiative advisory board shall develop guidelines to implement the grant program.

138 (d) Subject to appropriation, the executive office of education shall designate an inclusive 139 concurrent enrollment coordinator to manage grant administration and coordinate reporting. The 140 executive office of education shall provide school committees and public institutions of higher 141 education with the contact information for the inclusive concurrent enrollment coordinator.

142 (e) The inclusive concurrent enrollment coordinator, in consultation with the department 143 of elementary and secondary education, the department of higher education and the inclusive

144 concurrent enrollment advisory board, shall develop strategies and procedures to assist public 145 institutions of higher education in sustaining, expanding and replicating inclusive concurrent 146 enrollment partnerships established through the executive office of education's discretionary 147 grant program. The executive office of education shall make recommended strategies and 148 procedures to public institutions of higher education publicly available on its website.

149 Recommended strategies and procedures shall include, but not be limited to:

150 (i) the provision of available grant funding for partnerships between public 151 institutions of higher education and school committees that have developed inclusive concurrent 152 enrollment programs to sustain existing programs and retain employment specialists to assist 153 students in meeting competitive employment and other transition-related goals;

154 (ii) identifying procedures and funding mechanisms to ensure that new 155 partnerships providing inclusive concurrent enrollment programs fully utilize the models and 156 expertise developed in existing partnerships to ensure that programs are successful and 157 sustainable;

158 (iii) the development of methods to encourage existing and new partnerships to 159 expand the capacity of public institutions of higher education to respond to requests for eligible 160 students to participate in inclusive concurrent enrollment initiatives;

161 (iv) outreach to public institutions of higher education and school committees not 162 currently participating in inclusive concurrent enrollment to encourage those institutions of 163 higher education and school committees to offer inclusive concurrent enrollment opportunities;

164 (v) ways to address common challenges faced by public institutions of higher 165 education and newly created inclusive concurrent enrollment initiatives and a compilation of best 166 practices to address these challenges; and

167 (vi) recommendations on the integration of students with severe intellectual 168 disabilities, autism spectrum disorders and other developmental disabilities into housing offered 169 to nondisabled students with the accommodations, supports and services necessary to enable 170 inclusive dormitory living if the public institution of higher education chooses to offer residential 171 housing.

172 (f) The executive office of education shall establish an inclusive concurrent enrollment 173 advisory board to advise the executive office of education on efforts to implement inclusive 174 concurrent enrollment and to participate in educational outreach efforts related to inclusive 175 concurrent enrollment. The inclusive concurrent enrollment advisory board shall include the 176 following members or their designees: the inclusive concurrent enrollment coordinator, who 177 shall serve as chair; the secretary of education, the commissioner of higher education; the 178 commissioner of elementary and secondary education; the commissioner of developmental 179 services; the commissioner of the Massachusetts rehabilitation commission; a representative of 180 Massachusetts Advocates for Children, Inc.; a representative of The Federation for Students with 181 Special Needs, Inc.; a representative of the Institute for Community Inclusion; at least 2 182 representatives of school districts and public institutions of higher education that have 183 successfully implemented inclusive concurrent enrollment initiatives, to be appointed by the 184 chair; and 2 students who are participating or have participated in an inclusive concurrent 185 enrollment program, to be appointed by the chair. The inclusive concurrent enrollment advisory 186 board shall meet at least quarterly. Members of the advisory board shall serve without 187 compensation.

188 (g) The executive office of education shall annually select grant recipients not later than 189 July 15.

190 (h) The executive office of education, in consultation with the department of elementary 191 and secondary education and the department of higher education, shall annually post a report 192 online on the status of the grant program not later than March 15. The report shall include, but 193 not be limited to, the following components:

194 (i) data detailing the number of students enrolled in the inclusive concurrent 195 enrollment initiative each semester and the unduplicated count of total students served at each 196 public institution of higher education;

197 (ii) a list of all full-time and part-time employment positions supported by the 198 grant program that are dedicated to supporting students with severe disabilities, autism spectrum 199 disorder and other developmental disabilities through the inclusive concurrent enrollment 200 initiative and the average salary for those positions including, but not limited to: (1) educational 201 coaches; (2) educational specialists; (3) job coaches and vocational specialists; (4) program 202 specialists; (5) program directors; (6) peer mentors, note-takers and tutors; (7) contracted 203 employees; and (8) parent and school committee liaisons;

204 (iii) a list of courses taken by students participating in the inclusive concurrent 205 enrollment initiative during the academic year and if the student enrolled in the course for credit 206 or in audit status and whether the student passed or completed the course;

207 (iv) a summary of innovative strategies and practices implemented at each public 208 institution of higher education with school committees or eligible students;

209 (v) employment data for students and graduates, obtained to the best of the ability 210 of the school district, the public institution of higher education and the executive office of 211 education; and

212 (vi) a report detailing the amount of grant funds allocated to each public 213 institution of higher education in the planning and implementation phases, the amount allocated 214 to the department of elementary and secondary education and the department of higher education 215 and the amount allocated to the executive office of education.

216 SECTION 12. Not later than July 1, 2017, the board of higher education, in consultation 217 with an inclusive concurrent enrollment advisory board, shall provide guidance for including 218 students with severe intellectual disabilities, autism spectrum disorders and other developmental 219 disabilities in the residence life of public institutions of higher education, such as 220 accommodations, supports and services necessary to enable inclusive dormitory living.

221 SECTION 13. The executive office of education shall promulgate guidelines pursuant to 222 section 17 of chapter 71B of the General Laws not later than July 1, 2017.

223 SECTION 14. This act shall take effect on July 1, 2017.
