An Act to ensure continued humane animal care and protect family farms in Massachusetts.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Chapter 272 of the General Laws is hereby amended by adding the
2 following section:--

3 Section 106.

5 farm animals in a manner that does not allow them to turn around freely, lie down, stand up, and
6 fully extend their limbs.

7 (b) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a person is guilty of unlawful
8 confinement of a covered farm animal if the person is a farm owner or operator who knowingly
9 tethers or confines any covered animal, on a farm, for all or the majority of any day, in a manner
10 that prevents such animal from:

11 (1) Lying down, standing up, and fully extending his or her limbs; and

(2) Turning around freely.

(c) This section shall not apply:

(1) During medical, scientific, or agricultural research.

(2) During examination, testing, individual treatment or operation for veterinary purposes.

(3) During transportation.

(4) During rodeo exhibitions, state or county fair exhibitions, 4-H programs, and similar exhibitions.

(5) During the slaughter of a covered animal in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 94, sections 139C and 139D of the General Laws, and other applicable laws and regulations.

(6) To a pig during the seven-day period prior to the pig's expected date of giving birth.

(d) For the purposes of this section:

(2) "Covered animal" means any pig during pregnancy, or calf raised for veal who is kept on a farm.

(3) "Enclosure" means any cage, crate, or other structure (including what is commonly described as a "gestation crate" for pigs; or a "veal crate" for calves used to confine a covered animal).

(4) "Farm" means the land, building, support facilities, and other equipment that are wholly or partially used for the commercial production of animals or animal products used for food or fiber; and does not include live animal markets.
