3 Section 226. (a) Notwithstanding any general or special law to the contrary, an insurer shall provide to the first-named insured at the mailing address shown on the policy, and to the insurance producer of record, written notice of any premium increase in excess of 15 percent

(15%) and shall also provide the exact renewal premium, at least 45 days prior to the expiration date of the policy unless the premium increase is the result of an audit or the increase is the result of an increase in exposure at the request of the insured. Not less than 45 days written notice, as provided herein, shall be required for any coverage elimination, reduction, diminution or increased deductible not at the request of the insured and in this case the notice shall itemize and describe the coverage changes and shall be separate from the renewal policy. If the insurer fails to provide such notice, the coverage provided to the named insured shall remain in effect until notice is provided or until the effective date of replacement coverage obtained by the named insured, whichever occurs first. For the purposes of this section, notice is considered given 45 days following date of giving of notice. If the named insured elects not to renew, any earned premium for the period of extension of the terminated policy shall be calculated pro-rata at the lower of the current or previous year's rate. If the insured accepts the renewal, the premium increase, if any, and other changes shall be effective the day following the prior policy's expiration or anniversary date.

- 20 (b) This section shall not apply to changes based upon the altered nature or extent of the risk insured.
- (c) For purposes of this section, notice to the insurance producer of record shall not apply to an insurance producer of record who:
- 24 (1) Is an employee of the insurer; or
