The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Eighty-Ninth General Court
(2015-2016)

An Act relative to short-term disability insurance disclosure.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Section 47F of chapter 175 of the General Laws, as appearing in 2010
2 Official Edition, is hereby amended in line 10 after "surgical expense insurance," by inserting the 3 following words:- or disability income insurance.

4 SECTION 2. Section 47F of chapter 175 of the General Laws, as so appearing, is further 5 amended, at the end of the first paragraph, by inserting the following:-

6 Any policy of accidental or sickness insurance that provides coverage for disability 7 income shall clearly indicate that pregnancy is an eligible disability, and shall clearly state the 8 benefit periods associated with childbirth. Benefits related to a vaginal or caesarean birth shall 9 begin immediately upon such birth and for vaginal births shall continue for a minimum of six

10 weeks and for caesarean births for a minimum of eight weeks, with no elimination period. All 11 disclosures of pregnancy-related benefits must be made in compliance with regulations
12 promulgated by the department of public health, including 211 CMR 42.00 et seq. Said 13 regulations shall include requirements that pregnancy-related eligibility and benefits information 14 be provided in all policies and plans and promotional materials for such policies and plans.
