In the One Hundred and Eighty-Ninth General Court (2015-2016)

An Act relative to improving training for child advocates to recognize indicators of domestic violence.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1           SECTION 1. Section 56a of Chapter 215 of the General laws as appearing in the 2006
2 Official edition, is hereby amended by inserting, in line 7, after the word “attorney.” the
3 following words: - All child custody cases referred to a guardian ad litem will require a domestic
4 violence screening assessment in which a judge shall cause a search to be made of the records
5 contained within the statewide domestic violence record keeping system, maintained by the 6 office of the commissioner of probation, and shall review the resulting data to determine whether
7 the parties have a civil or criminal record involving domestic violence prior to a decision
8 rendered.

9 All appointed guardian ad litem will be required to have completed a minimum of 24
10 hours of professional development training for certification, and at least 8 hours of training on 11 the indicators of domestic violence from an approved domestic violence organization.

12 Formal complaints of the competency of an appointed Guardian ad Litem can be filed in 13 motion to a judge in camera. -:
