HOUSE . . . . . No. 2021

By Mr. Cantwell of Marshfield, a petition (accompanied by bill, House, No. 2021) of James M. Cantwell and others relative to appointment, training and funding of school resource officers. Education.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninetieth General Court (2017-2018)

An Act promoting local control and effective training of school resource officers.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Section 37P of Chapter 71, as appearing in the 2014 Official Edition, is
2 hereby amended by striking the second paragraph in subsection (b) and inserting in place thereof
3 the following:

4 In assigning a school resource officer (hereinafter, "SRO"), the chief of police shall
5 assign officers that the chief believes would strive to foster an optimal learning environment and
6 educational community. The chief of police shall give preference to candidates who demonstrate 7 the requisite personality and character to work with children and educators in a school
8 environment and who have received specialized training relating to working with adolescents
9 and children, including cognitive development, de-escalation techniques, and alternatives to 10 arrest and diversion strategies. The appointment shall not be based solely on seniority. The 11 performance of an SRO shall be reviewed annually by the superintendent and the chief of police.

12           The superintendent and the chief of police shall enter into a written memorandum of 13 understanding which shall be placed on file in the offices of the school superintendent and the 14 chief of police.

15           The memorandum of understanding shall, at minimum, describe the following:

- 16           (i)     mission statement, goals, and objectives of the SRO program;
- 17           (ii)    roles and responsibilities of the SROs, the police agency, and the schools;
- 18           (iii)   process for selecting SROs;
- 19           (iv)    mechanisms to incorporate SROs into the school environment, including school
20 safety meetings;
- 21           (v)     information sharing between SROs, school staff, and other partners;
- 22           (vi)    organizational structure of the SRO program, including supervision of SROs and 23 the lines of communication between the school district and police agency; and
- 24           (vii)   training for SROs, including but not limited to continuing professional
25 development in child and adolescent development, conflict resolution, and diversion strategies

26           The memorandum of understanding shall state that SROs shall not serve as formal
27 counselors, school disciplinarians, or enforcers of school regulations, and further that officers
28 shall not use police powers to address traditional school discipline issues, including non-violent
29 disruptive behavior.

30           The chief of police, in consultation with the school superintendent, shall establish
31 standard operating procedures (hereinafter, “SOP”) to provide guidance to SROs about daily

32 operations, policies, and procedures. At minimum, the SOP, as established by the chief of police,
33 shall describe the following for the school resource officer:

34 (1) the SRO uniform;

35 (2) use of police force, arrest, citation, and court referral on school property;

36 (3) a statement and description of students' legal rights, including the process for 37 searching and questioning students and when parents and administrators shall be notified and
38 present;

39 (4) chain of command, including delineating to whom the SRO reports and how
40 school administrators and the SRO work together;

41 (5) performance evaluation standards, which shall incorporate monitoring compliance
42 with the MOU and use of arrest, citation, and police force in school;

43 (6) protocols for diverting and referring at-risk students to school- and community-
44 based supports and providers; and

45 (7) information sharing between the SRO, school staff, and parents or guardians

46 The executive office of public safety and security, in consultation with the department of 47 elementary and secondary education, shall make available to all communities examples of model
48 memoranda of understanding, statements of procedures, and non-binding advisories on how to 49 establish said documents.

50 SECTION 2. Section 2JJJJ of Chapter 29, is hereby amended by striking the following
51 words-

52 “and for the municipal police training committee, under section 116 of chapter 6”

53 and inserting in place thereof the following words:-

54 “, municipal police training committee, under section 116 of chapter, and the school
55 resource officer training program”

56 SECTION 3. Section 12 of chapter 89 is hereby amended by striking out the word “$5”
57 and inserting in place thereof “$6”

58 SECTION 4. Section 20 of chapter 90 is hereby amended by striking out the word “$25”
59 and inserting in place thereof “$30”

60 SECTION 5. Section 37P of Chapter 71, as appearing in the 2014 Official Edition, is
61 hereby amended by inserting the following subsections:

62 (g) The municipal police training committee shall establish a school resource officer
63 training program (hereinafter, program) to train school resource officers (hereinafter, SRO) and
64 chiefs of police, police supervisors, and school administrators who oversee or administer SRO
65 programs. The municipal police training committee shall offer grants to municipalities, regional 66 school districts, county agricultural schools, charter schools, and police agencies to cover the 67 tuition and fees for training. Grants shall fund training offered by the committee or the following
68 organizations:

69 (1) national association of school resource officers;

70 (2) the national center for mental health and juvenile justice; and

71 (3) any other training program that is consistent with subsections (i) and (j) and 72 approved by the municipal police training committee or the department of elementary of 73 secondary education.

74 (h) The secretary of public safety and security shall direct funding from the public safety
75 training fund for the school resource officer training program.

76 (i) Program training for officers shall include instruction on:

77 (1) school building security;

78 (2) school resource officer roles and responsibilities;

79 (3) child and adolescent development;

80 (4) de-escalation and conflict resolution techniques with children and adolescents,
81 positive school discipline, and implicit bias

82 (5) data collection and analysis;

83 (6) juvenile law

84 (7) Information sharing, including federal and state privacy laws; and,

85 (8) diversion strategies, including restorative justice and community based supports;

86 (j) Program training for school administrators, chiefs of police, and supervising police
87 officers shall include instruction to promote knowledge, skills, and strategies in:

88 (1) school building security;

89 (2) SRO roles and responsibilities;

- 90 (3) integrating SROs into the school environment;
- 91 (4) developing memoranda of understanding;
- 92 (6) program evaluation, data collection and analysis; and,
- 93 (7) administering a school resource officer program

94 (k) The municipal police training committee shall develop a school resource officer
95 certificate for officers who have completed requisite training in topics described in subsection (i).
96 The municipal police training committee shall develop requirements defining continuing
97 education for recertification.

98 (l) The municipal police training committee shall develop standards defining minimum
99 training standards for school resource officers that are consistent with subsection (i). The 100 municipal police training committee shall publish on the committee website a collection of 101 resources and experts guides relating to SRO programs, training, and administration.

102 (m) The secretary of public safety and security, in consultation with the department of 103 elementary and secondary education, shall promulgate rules and regulations for subsections (g)
104 through (l), inclusive.
